LLEWELLYN C. RIDEOUT

DOVER-FOXCROFT - Llewellyn C. Rideout, 85, husband of the late Hope (Buzzell) Rideout, died Feb. 6, 2005, at a local nursing home. He was born Nov. 15, 1919, in Atkinson, the son of Robert "Wilmot" and Alice (Day) Rideout. A World War II U.S. Army veteran, Mr. Rideout was a well-known potato farmer. He was active with the Masons and Shrine for 58 years. He is survived by his daughter, Carol and her husband, Emery Cole, of Sebec; a granddaughter, Cindy and her husband, David Brown, of Sebec; three great-grandchildren, Randy, Nicole, and Casey; several nieces and nephews, including a special nephew, Dean and his family. He was predeceased by brothers, Ensley "Jack", Chesley, Wilmot "Francis", Delbert, Floyd "Ike", Harold, and Beecher; sisters, Eleanor, Verna, Phoebe, and Alice; and a granddaughter, Beverly. Friends are invited to call 4-7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 8, 2005, at the Lary Funeral Home, Dover-Foxcroft, with Masonic memorial services said at 7 p.m. Graveside funeral services will be held at the family lot in Atkinson Corner Cemetery in the spring. A Farmer's Creed I believe a man's greatest possession is his dignity and that no calling bestows this more abundantly than farming. I believe hard work, and honest sweat are the building blocks of a person's character. I believe that farming, despite its hardships and disappointment is the most honest and honorable way a man can spend his days on this earth. I believe farming nurtures the close family ties that make life rich in ways money can't buy. I believe my children are learning values that will last a lifetime and can be learned in no other way. I believe farming provides education for life and that no other occupation teaches so much about birth, growth and maturity in such a variety of ways. I believe many of the best things in life are indeed free: the splendor of the sunrise, the rapture of wide open spaces, the exhilarating sight of your land greening each spring. I believe true happiness comes from watching your crops ripen in the field, your children grow tall in the sun, your whole family feel the pride that springs from their shared experience. I believe that by my toil I am giving more to the world than I am taking from it, an honor that does not come to all men. I believe my life will be measured ultimately by what I have done for my fellowman and by this standard I fear no judgment. I believe that a man grows old and sums up his day, he should be able to stand tall and feel pride in the life he's lived. I believe in farming because it makes all this possible.

SHAPLEIGH -- Vinton T. Ridley, 78, of Shapleigh, died Jan. 21, 2007, at Southern Maine Medical Center with his wife and children at his side.

Vinton, better known as Wink, was born on Oct. 30, 1928, at his parents' home in Springvale. He was the son of the late Roger T. and Marion H. Pence Ridley. He attended local schools and graduated with the 1947 class at Sanford High School. On Aug. 12, 1950, he was married to Arlene Wilson Ridley, and together they began a family.

For many years Vinton served his community. He served as a Town of Shapleigh Selectman for 10 years; he organized the Shapleigh Fire Department, and was member of the Shapleigh Community Forest board of trustees. He served on the York County Budget Committee, was a member of the York County Sheriff Department, served as a Bail Commissioner for the State of Maine Judicial System, and was a State Representative for the Democratic party for 10 years.

Vinton was also a 50 + year member of the Springvale Masonic Lodge No. 190 AF & AM.

Vinton owned and operated V.T. Ridley Company, a custom machine shop. In the late 1970s he re-opened the L.S. Patch Store as the Shapleigh Corner Store.

Vinton greatly enjoyed the outdoors. He liked to go hunting and fishing, but above all he enjoyed time with his family, as that was what was most important to him.

Surviving is his wife of 56 years, Arlene Wilson Ridley; their children, Ruth Ridley, Roger T. Ridley, Sarah Pelletier, Mary Emmons, and William T. Ridley. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren, and 13 great-grandchildren.

At Vinton's request services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

The Ridley family encourages those wishing to make memorial contributions to consider:

Joseph Woodbury Ridlon businessman and civic leader

KEZAR FALLS - Joseph Woodbury Ridlon, 86, died Tuesday at Country Manor Nursing Home in Whitefield.

He was born in Porter, a son of Walter and Bertha Gilpatrick Ridlon, and graduated from Porter High School of Kezar Falls in 1929 as class salutatorian.

Joseph Ridlon

He married Harriet Amanda Leavitt of Cape Elizabeth on April 11, 1939, in Kezar Falls and they raised three children there.

The hard economic times of the Depression ruled out college, so Mr. Ridlon joined his father and uncle in the family business, Ridlon Brothers, which was a long-time landmark in Kezar Falls.

Mr. Ridlon took over ownership of the business in 1940 and operated it until 1970.

After Mr. Ridlon sold Ridlon Brothers, he began a second career as a property appraiser. He relocated to Bath and performed valuation appraisals for several insurance firms along coastal Maine. He retired in 1980.

Over the years, Mr. Ridlon served as Porter's tax assessor and on the school board. He was active in the Porter Fire Department and during the forest fires of 1947, opened his home and business to firefighters from around New England. He was active in the Masonic Lodge for more than 50 years.

Survivors include his wife, Harriet A. Leavitt Ridlon of Wiscasset; two sons, Arthur W. of Boothbay and Walter M. of North Conway, N.H.; one daughter, Martha-Jo Nichols of Wiscasset; and six grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Riverside Cemetery in Cornish. The Rev. Wesley W. Nichols will officiate. Burial will follow. Arrangements are by Gray and Pratt Funeral Home, Windsor.

Born Heering 9-16-1855

Charles Irving Riggs, 62, paying teller in the Fidelity Trust Co., a banker here 30 years, died suddenly just after 6 o'clock last evening as result of an acute attack of heart failure, probably superinduced by Bright's disease. He entered Smith & Broe's drug store just before 6 and accosted Mr. Broe, asking for something to ease his breathing. A suggestion of aromatic spirits of ammonia was made and Mr. Broe started to serve it. As he turned again to Mr. Riggs he saw that the latter had sat down, was ashen gray, beads of perspiration stood on his forehead and he was drooping in his seat. Mr. Broe and his clerks gave their whole attention to the stricken man, the former telephoning an emergency call, responded to within four or five minutes by Dr. J. L. Davis. It was seen that Mr. Riggs was in an extremely grave state and he was but partially conscious. He was assisted into Dr. Davis's machine and a hurried run was made to the Eye & Ear Infirmary, where he died a few minutes after their arrival. He gradually became unconscious, never speaking after leaving the drug store, and there was no remedy sufficiently powerful to revive him.

NATIVE OF DEERING.

Charles Riggs was a native of Deering, now a part of Portland, was born there Sept. 16, 1855, and always lived there, for many years at 191 Woodfords street, alone since the death of his sister about five years ago. He never married and was a recluse so far as his domestic life was concerned, journeying back and forth between his home and the bank in a never varying routine of daily life. Aside from attendance at Masonic meetings and occasional visits to a theatre he was
