Ambrose V. Ackley, 92, oldest Bowdoin alumnus and former teacher in the schools of Otisfield, Bristol, Cape Elizabeth and Peaks Island, died late Friday afternoon in his home on Sterling Street, Peaks Island, after two years of poor health.

Mr. Ackley was elected warden of Island Ward Two, Peaks Island, 55 times from 1870 until 1939. He enjoyed the distinction of having met and shaken hands with President Lincoln and was a member of the Lincoln Fellowship of the United States.

An ardent baseball fan from the time he played for the Pennesseewassee of Norway in 1867 when catchers stood 40 feet behind the plate and took the ball on the bounce, he maintained an interest in the national sport until the day of his death. His last request two and one-half hours before he died was that the baseball and other sports news and editorials be read to him.

Mr. Ackley was born Feb. 2, 1848, at Rumford, son of John and Polly Penley Ackley. His paternal grandfather, Samuel Ackley, was a veteran of the Revolutionary War and his maternal grandfather, Joseph Penley, of the War of 1812.

He resided at South Paris during his childhood and for two years in early youth lived and worked in Pennsylvania. He met President Lincoln at a White House reception Jan. 26, 1865. When he returned to Maine he completed his education in the schools of Norway and Bridgton and was graduated from Bowdoin in 1872. During his school days he was interested in baseball and wrestling and won silver trophies at college for running.

In 1880 he retired from teaching at the Peaks Island Grammar School but remained as janitor until 1933. He joined the Crooked River Lodge of Masons at Otisfield in 1870, later transferred to the Portland Lodge and was a member of St. Alban's Commandery.

Mr. Ackley attended the Brackett Memorial Church and formerly taught a Sunday School class there.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary Skillings Ackley, 85, whom he married in 1873; two daughters, Miss Ethel Ackley, who resides at home, and Mrs. Walter B. Sterling of Island Avenue and New Jersey; a son, E. Preble Ackley of South Portland; eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Brackett Memorial Church. Interment will be in Pine Grove Cemetery.

Paul R. Aclin beauty salon owner, 'musician at heart'

Paul R. Aclin, 84, formerly of Park Danforth, a beauty shop operator and former musician, died Saturday at the Barron Center after a long illness.

He was born in El Paso, Ark., a son of Robert Clyde and Lillian Harris Aclin. He grew up and attended schools in Detroit.

Paul R. Aclin

operated it until he retired in 1992.

For many years he and his band, the Paul-Stanley Combo, entertained at the Eastland Hotel and other local establishments as well as the Brunswick Naval Air Station and Fort Williams Officers' Clubs.

"He was a musician at heart," said his daughter, Cheryl McLean of Beavercreek, Ohio.

She said her father started playing the clarinet and saxophone in a swing band in Detroit, and was serious about music until he joined the Navy.

"He met my mother on shore leave in Portland, and returned there after the war," she said. He joined his wife's beauty salon as the manager and operator, and eventually learned to work in the shop with customers, as well.

Mr. Aclin enlisted in the Navy in 1939 and served in World War II in the Atlantic, Mediterranean and the Pacific.

After the war he settled in Portland. He and his wife, Natalie, owned and operated the Sallenette Beauty Salon in the former Owen Moore Department Store until it closed in the early 1970s. Mr. Aclin then opened another beauty salon, Paul Aclin Hair Fashions, at 55 Oak St. and became ill with prostate cancer about a year ago. In the past few months, he spent most of his time in the hospital and nursing home.

"We hadn't been able to do much lately, but I called him every day and visited him," she said.

Mr. Aclin was a Mason and longstanding member of South Portland Hiram Chapter and Hiram Lodge.

In addition to his daughter, Mr. Aclin is survived by a son, Kurt, of Palo Verde, Calif.; and two sisters, Edlean Moorehead of Grosse Point, Mich., and Barbara Sellers of South Lyon, Mich.

Memorial services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in Chapel B of Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, 199 Woodford St.

PASSAGES

His daughter said she and others who knew her father will remember him as a gentleman who always thought of others before he thought of himself. Mr. Aclin and his wife separated in the early 1960s but didn't divorce until his daughter finished college in 1968 because he didn't want to break up the family," she said.

Even then, she said, her parents continued to work together amicably until her mother moved out of state. In later years, Mr. Aclin replaced his passion for music with reading, solving crossword puzzles and spending time with friends.

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

For the last 14 years, his closest friend was Carol Oliphant of Portland, with whom he dined out, went dancing and listened to jazz bands on Saturday afternoons.

"We went lots of places together," Oliphant said. "He liked to go to flea markets. We were just two people who had a lot of fun together. He ran into people who knew him every time we went out."

She said that Mr. Aclin remained active until he
