CUMBERLAND - Philip Lawrence Allen, the son of the late Robert D. and Cathleen Copp Allen, was born Feb.1, 1949.

He was a loving family man who shared his life with his wife, Wendi Lee; sons, Philip Dennis and Andrew Lee; a daughter, Jennifer Lee Brann; a grandson, Philip David Walker; a granddaughter, Kaitlyn; a brother, Dennis Robert; sisters, Louise Coffin and Kathy Merrill; and many nieces and nephews.

Philip was a proud, life-long resident of West Cumberland. He graduated from Greely High School. If Philip wanted to do something, he did it. He became a certified welder, received his real estate license, became a licensed auctioneer, and earned his private pilot's license.

During his life, Philip followed his dreams. He loved agriculture and ran Allen's Farm's Greenhouses as long as he was able. He was the Vice-President of the Cumberland Farmers Club, participating in the Cumberland Fair every year. He was also a past board member of the Maine State Florist and Growers Association, nominated for the Young Farmer of the Year Award, a member of the Maine Farm Bureau and the Cumberland Farmers Market.

Philip's love for his community and its members lead him down many roads. He was elected to the Cumberland Town Council, and was a past member of the American Society of Notaries. He co-founded Cumberland's Hootin' n' Hollerin' Days, held to raise money to build the West Cumberland Ball Field. He was Past Sachem of the Swaga Tribe of Redmen in West Cumberland. He was also a lifetime member, a past Captain and a Past Chaplain for the Cumberland Fire and Rescue Department.

Philip was so inspired by the Masonic organization that he went through the degrees to become a Master of Casco Lodge in Yarmouth. He presided during the construction of their present hall. He also became a member of the Royal Arch Masons, the Order of the Knights Templar, the Ark Mariners, the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and participated in the Advisory Board for the Rainbow Girls.

Philip's love for his church and its members lead him to become the head of the West Cumberland United Methodist Church Youth
