Locomotive Engineer; age 40
 Greenleaf Chapt; St Albans Condy

Horace Emerson Andrews, 92, retired veteran railroad engineer, died Wednesday night in his home at 46 Forest Avenue, South Portland, after a brief illness.

Mr. Andrews, a native of Somersworth, N. H., had been a resident of South Portland 50 years. He started his railroad career service firing engines that burned hard maple wood to drive huge-chimneyed locomotives over the old Portland, Saco and Portsmouth line. He later became an engineer for the Boston & Maine Railroad, piloting some of the finest "iron horses" of his day, and ended 58 years of service without ever having been involved in a serious accident.

Son of William H. and Abigail Lord Andrews, Mr. Andrews was born Sept. 18, 1845, and received his early education in the schools at Somersworth. He was a member of Hiram Lodge, F. and A. M., Greenleaf Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and the Methodist Church.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. William Tibbetts of Dover, N. H., and Mrs. Abbie Drew.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m., Saturday, at the Phillips Funeral Home, 160 Ocean Street, South Portland.

Hugh E. Andrews

postal worker, decorated WWI veteran

WESTBROOK - Hugh E. Andrews, 81, a well-known postal carrier who was active in many youth and civic groups, died Wednesday at a local nursing home.

Mr. Andrews retired in 1973 after working 34 years at the Westbrook post office. He worked first in the former Cumberland Mills branch, then as a letter carrier out of the Main Street branch.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

He was familiar to most people in Westbrook as the man who delivered parcel post packages citywide for many years.

He had been president of the Westbrook Little League, a member of the School Committee and chairman of the Citizen's Advisory Committee. An active member of the Kora Temple Shrine, he was director of its Oriental Band for six years. He also volunteered long hours for the Manchester American Legion Post as treasurer of its baseball team, and on the building corporation.

A baseball fan, he followed the Manchester Post Legion baseball team throughout each summer. "He went to all the games, and traveled all over New England with them," said his wife, Carolyn Clark Andrews.

"He was a very conscientious man about his city," said Luther Small, a longtime friend. "He was big and affable, a gentle giant. He volunteered to help at anything, or any group. Everybody in Westbrook knew him because of his job delivering parcel post."

During his retirement, Mr.

Andrews was a part-time delivery man for Dodge the Florist in Portland.

He was active for more than 50 year in the Masons. He played drums and cymbals in the Oriental Band before becoming director. "The Oriental Band was one of his great joys," said Small. "He traveled all over for them, working at parades, fund-raisers and at the annual Shrine Circus."

During World War II, Mr. Andrews was a postal officer in the Army for the 70th Division. He was a lieutenant, serving mainly in France and the Rhineland, and was awarded the Bronze Star. He also served as a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserves, retiring in 1973.

He was a deacon of the former Warren Congregational Church, a member of the Westbrook-Warren Congregational Church, the Reserve Officers and Retired Officers associations, the Military Order of the World Wars, the Joshua Chamberlain Chapter of the Sojourners and the Heroes of 76. He was a member of the Retired Federal Employees, the Portland and the Lake Region Shrine clubs, the Woodfords Club and the National Letter Carriers Union.

He was born here, in his nearly lifelong home at 70 Oak St., a son of Charles R. and Susie Fye Andrews. He graduated in 1932 from Westbrook High School and also graduated from Gray's Business College.

His first wife, Virginia Driscoll Andrews, died in 1978.

Hugh Andrews

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Jane Ashley of Portland; a son, James E. of Auburn; two stepdaughters, Kathleen A. Barton of Jacksonville, Fla., and Sharon A. Sambursky of Derry, N.H.; four grandchildren and five step-grandchildren.

A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at Westbrook-Warren Congregational Church, 810 Main St. Burial will be private. Arrangements are by Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, Portland.

Treas & mgr. Leutheroid Buys Co.
 Later owner & operator Lafayette
 Born in Welchville

St. Andrew Condy

last evening announced the death in Philadelphia late yesterday afternoon of Paul I. Andrews, formerly treasurer and general manager of the Leatheroid Manufacturing Co., and until very recently the owner and operator of the Lafayette Greenhouses on Parsons street. Last July Mr. Andrews underwent an operation on the inside of his lower jaw, and was reported as having recovered from the operation, and a few weeks later returned to his home here. Three weeks ago he returned to the same hospital for another operation in addition to his former one. Encouraging reports of his condition were received here, and the announcement of his death came as a surprise to local people.

Mr. Andrews was born in Welchville, July 18, 1869, the oldest son of the late Emery Rogers, founder of the present Rogers Fiber Co. After taking a special course at Bowdoin College, Mr. Anderson made a trip to Alaska, and on returning to Kennebunk he entered the employ of the Leatheroid Manufacturing Co., eventually becoming its head. Mr.

Andrews possessed rare ability as an inventor, and was granted patents for many valuable devices.

Following his retirement as treasurer of the Leatheroid Manufacturing Co. some 12 years ago, he entered the florist business, which he recently leased to York parties.

Mr. Andrews was a member and past master of York Lodge of Masons and a sir knight of St. Amand Commandery, K. T., of this place.

Besides his wife, who was Miss Susan R. Thompson of this town, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Philip Sidney Brown of New Haven, Conn., three brothers, Professor Henry Andrews of Bowdoin College, Ralph Andrews, recorder of the Kennebunk Municipal Court, and Philip Andrews of Florida.

The body will be brought here, and funeral services will be held from his home on Storer street Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Allen Constantine, pastor of the Congregational Church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Dr. John W. Day of the First Parish Church. Interment will be in Hope cemetery.
