WESTBROOK - Carl P. Baade, Jr., a brief resident of Springbrook Nursing Care Center in Westbrook, died peacefully with his family at his side on Sunday, June 15, 2003. Born in Portland on August 14, 1927, he was a son of Carl P. Baade, Sr. and Frances Daly Baade. He attended both Portland and Deering high schools, and was a graduate of New Hampshire College. Carl entered the Army Air Force in 1945. Throughout his 23-year Air Force career he had tours of duty in the U.S. and abroad, and he served during the Korean War. In the 1960's, Carl owned and operated a lobster boat out of Portland harbor. After he retired from the Air Force in 1968, he was employed at the Bath Post Office until his retirement in 1979. In his later years, he spent many winters in Palm Bay, Fla. Carl enjoyed the simple things in life such as watching sports, playing golf and cribbage, walking on the beach, the ocean and boating, his family and friends, bluegrass music, and Moxie. He was always taking rides in the car, sometimes going someplace; sometimes just going. His love of travel took him all over the world. Alaska, Greece and Australia were among his favorite places. Carl was a member of American Legion Post 21; the Bath Lodge of Elks; the VFW; the Slovak Catholic Association; and the Masonic Cornerstone Lodge #216. His outgoing personality and charming wit will be missed by all. Survivors include his companion, Barbara Bradbury Davis of Portland; three daughters, Carla Baade Turner and her husband, William of Hollis, Christa S. Baade and her fiance, Todd Temple of Bath and Gretchen S. Baade and her boyfriend, Gary Lemay of Lisbon Falls; three sons, Eric C. Baade and his wife Deborah of South Harpswell, Scott R. Baade and his wife Elina of Alta Monte Springs, Fla., and Paul D. Baade of Lisbon Falls; seven grandchildren, including Candie, Christian and Carl, Alexandria, Benjamin, Christopher and Jenna; and two great-grandchildren also survive him; as do his brother, Robert Baade of Washington State; three sisters, Constance 'Dolly' Noring of Great Diamond Island, Nancy St. Peter of Standish and Patricia Johnson of Portland; as well as the mother of his children,

Augusta, Dec. 5.—An aged Augusta man died beneath the wheels of a Diesel locomotive Monday night, and his sister was critically injured when their automobile slid under the Bridge Street crossing gate into the path of a slowly moving train.

George H. Babb, 86, retired state employe, was decapitated when he was thrown under the wheels of the Pine Tree Limited.

His sister, Miss Mary Babb, 80, of Sebago, was placed on the danger list at the Augusta General Hospital, with multiple abrasions and fractures, severe concussions and shock.

Train Engineer Herbert Campbell of Portland said he saw the car come to a stop at the crossing, and that it then "slid" out under the gate into the path of the train. Louis Jacques, an eye witness, said the car stopped, then started again, and the slanting windshield of the machine pushed the crossing gate over the top of the automobile as it slid onto the track.

A railroad spokesman said the gates were down, a crossing tender was waving a lantern and bells were ringing at the time. The train had just left the Augusta station on its scheduled run to Bangor.

Malcolm A. Bacon

NAPLES -- Malcolm A. Bacon passed away Wednesday, Aug. 23, 2006, at the Bridgton Health Care Center supported by his family after a long illness.

He was born on Aug. 29, 1928, a son of James and Gladys Chaplin Bacon of Naples. At nine years of age Malcolm started going to work with his father, who operated a large power shovel doing road construction. He was always learning the trade from his father and, after graduating from Bridgton High School in 1947, he was prepared to operate a power shovel by himself. For approximately 24 years Malcolm operated heavy equipment for Lane Construction Company of Meriden, Conn., and 12 years for Santino Viola of Portland. He also ran a small excavating business from his home and was always enthusiastic about his work.

Malcolm much enjoyed hunting in Maine, New England and Canada. In 1986 he realized a long-time desire of going on an African Safari.

He was a Past Master of Oriental Lodge No. 13 AF&AM and a member of Kora Temple Shrine. Malcolm contributed to the Lodge in many ways, among them was doing much of the excavation for the new Lodge Hall in Bridgton. He was Past Patron of Pondicherry Chapter No. 192 Order of the Eastern Star eight times.

He was predeceased by his parents and his sister, Louisa Duffus. Surviving are his wife of 57 years, Rachel Howard Bacon of Naples; five children, John of Gorham, Malcolm of Freedom, N.H., Mary Reed and husband Arthur of Poland, Patricia Sharkey and husband Jack of Warren, and Justin of Naples; six grandchildren, Matthew and Kelley Reed, Michael and Rachel Feero, and Nathaniel and Jameson Bacon; his sister, Rosalie Bacon Mosher of Gorham; and his brother Erwin of Millinocket.

Visiting hours will be held 6-8 p.m. Friday with a 7 p.m. Masonic Service at Hall Funeral Home, 165 Quaker Ridge Rd., Casco. A funeral service will be held 10 a.m. Saturday at the Naples United Methodist Church in Naples Village with Pastor Norman Boulay officiating.
