Benjamin Baker Funeral

Funeral services for Benjamin Baker, 30, Pine Point garage man fatally injured Sunday morning at Old Orchard Beach, when his automobile was struck by a train, will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m., at the Dennett & Craig funeral home, 365 Main Street, Saco.

Mr. Baker was a member of Orchard Lodge, F. & A. M., of Old Orchard Beach, and York Chapter, R. A. M., of Saco. He leaves besides his wife, Mrs. Irene Leger Baker, a son, Kenneth, six months old; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Baker and a brother, Ernest Baker, all of Pine Point.

Benjamin H. Baker

Scarboro, Feb. 13.—Seldom has this community been more shocked or expressed more sorrow than at the untimely death of Benjamin H. Baker who passed away Jan. 24 at the Trull Hospital in Biddeford.

Mr. Baker was the victim of an accident which occurred at Old Orchard Beach railroad crossing when his automobile was struck by the engine of a passenger train. His injuries were such, that after his removal from the scene of the accident he lived but a few hours.

Mr. Baker was born July 6, 1906, at Pine Point and was the younger son of Edward and Ellen Baker, who survive him. He was named for his paternal grandfather, Benjamin H. Baker, one of the earliest settlers of this section of Scarboro. He attended the common schools of this town and was an excellent scholar and subsequently was graduated with honors from Thornton Academy, Saco. After his graduation, he went into partnership with his father and was one of the owners of the well known "Baker's Garage" at Pine Point.

He was one of the officers of Old Orchard Lodge, F. & A. M., whose members greatly deplore loss of such a valued brother.

In November, 1935, Mr. Baker was united in marriage with Miss Irene Ledger of Old Orchard. His young wife and infant son are also deeply bereaved in the loss of a dear husband and father.

He was a young man of sterling qualities which endeared him to this community. A progressive citizen. Recently through his efforts a fire department was organized in Pine Point of which he was elected chief and director.

The funeral services were held at Saco, Tuesday, Jan. 26. The Rev. G. Elmer Mossman, pastor of the First Congregational Church and of the Blue Point Christian Church, paid touching tribute to his memory. This was followed by the Masonic Rites.

The floral tributes were beautiful and profuse, showing the esteem in which he was held by his associates.

Mr. Baker is survived by his wife and son, his parents and his brother Ernest. They have the deepest sympathy of the entire community. The interment was at the Dunstan Cemetery.

York Merchant Dies Of Wounds

York Harbor, May 5—Funeral services will be held at the home here Monday afternoon for Earl Baker, 41, prominent York businessman, who died at the York Hospital Saturday an hour after he had been found in his dry goods store at York Village with both wrists slashed.

Death, according to Dr. Paul Taylor of Kittery, York County medical examiner, was from self-inflicted wounds. Mr. Baker is said to have been dispondent of late.

Some of the women employes of the store, reporting for duty at 9 a. m., Saturday, found the place locked, and when entrance was gained Mr. Baker, was found lying on the floor. He was rushed to the hospital.

A native of Manchester, N. H. Mr. Baker was the son of the late George and Tina Baker, the family moving about 30 years ago to York, where his father was for some time president of the Community Trust Company.

Mr. Baker was a member of St. Aspinquid Lodge of Masons, of the Men's City Club and the town budget committee, and was a delegate to the last Republican State Convention. He was also interested in Boy Scouts activities and postwar work in behalf of veterans. In the first World War he served in the Merchant Marine.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Georgia Eaton Baker, and a son, George, who is a student at the University of Maine.
