optometrist, artist, Acton planner

ACTON - Dr. David Winslow Bartlett, 73, of Hopper Road, a third-generation optometrist and 17-year member of the local Planning Board, died Friday at his home after a long illness.

Dr. Bartlett was born in Boston, Mass., a son of Howard and Marian Adwers Bartlett.

He lived in Newton Center and Wellesley Hills, and graduated from New Hampton Prep in New Hampton, N.H. He also attended Tufts University.

He served in the Air Force in Cuba and England in World War II, and returned to earn his doctor of osteopathy degree from Northern Illinois College of Optometry in 1948.

He began practicing optometry in 1952 with his father at Bartlett and Son Optical in Boston, later moving to Brookline and Hingham, Mass. In 1972, he moved to Sanford where he ran his own practice until retiring in 1989.

Along with his wife, Jeanne Erhardt Bartlett, he owned Tamarack Rabbitry at Tamarack Farm, where they raised angora rabbits and Christmas trees.

"When people used to call us and ask for directions to the rabbit farm, they used to ask us 'Are you really on Hopper Road?'" and we'd say, "Yes, we really are," recalled Mrs. Bartlett.

The Bartletts moved to the farm, which had been in her husband's family since the 1930s, in 1972, Mrs. Bartlett said. Before raising rabbits and trees, they bred goats, and were once featured in an article in the Wall Street Journal, she said.

David W. Bartlett

Dr. Bartlett was highly respected within the optometric community. Mrs. Bartlett said his grandfather, for whom he was named, had many famous patients, including the queen of Spain, she added.

The Bartletts were charter members of the South-Shore Players in Hingham, Mass., and together were active in the theater and arts communities there for many years.

In his spare time, Dr. Bartlett became an accomplished pen-and-ink artist. His sketches of the Maine lagoon were popular among customers at the family gift shop, where most crafts for sale were created by Dr. Bartlett and his wife.

Dr. Bartlett was a former moderator, deacon and trustee of the Acton Congregational Church, where he education chairman.

He was a past president of the Sanford-Springsvale Rotary Club, a member of Springsvale Lodge and was 32nd degree Mason in Hingham. He was awarded a meritorious service award for the Scottish Rites Valley of Portland. He was a former president of the Pioneer Club and the Acton-Shapleigh Historical Society.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years and his stepmother, Eleanor Rae Smith of Orleans, Mass.; a son, Craig Sr. of Acton; a daughter, Sherry B. Horn of Kenduskeag; a half-brother, Bruce Bartlett of Orleans, Mass.; a half-sister, Cynthia Crossman of East Orleans, Mass.; and three grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Acton Congregational Church. Following cremation, burial will be in Bartlett Cemetery. Arrangements are by the Heald Funeral Home, Sprungvale.
