Arthur T. Belknap, D. D.

(Communicated)

The funeral service of Dr. Arthur Train Belknap, of Mansfield, Penna., and Lyman, Me., was held in the Blaisdell Memorial Baptist Church, in Waterboro, Thursday, May 7.

The Rev. Edwin B. Dolan, a classmate of Dr. Belknap in Brown University and Newton Theological Institution, had charge of the service. The Rev. M. B. Gile, pastor of the church, gave the invocation. Mr. Dolan read appropriate selections from the Scriptures. The Rev. David J. Griffith, pastor of the Baptist Church at Mansfield, Penna., of which Dr. Belknap was a member, spoke feelingly of his long service of 20 years in the Mansfield State Teachers' College, and of his great helpfulness and constant cooperation in this church of which he was a member during all these years.

He served as a deacon for nearly all of this period and was greatly loved. He also commended him as a useful citizen, ever ready to help in community and town affairs. Dr. Belknap had served the college as dean, and had been a successful, valued and much loved teacher, and had won the love and esteem of the townspeople to an unusual degree, and will be greatly missed.

Mr. Dolan spoke of him in his student days, quiet, studious and friendly, and mentioned his successful pastorates at Sanford, in the late 90s, in Andover, Mass., and in Providence, R. I. He also emphasized his success as an educator, in Franklin College, Indiana, in Grand Island College, Nebraska, of which he was president, and at Mansfield.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Lester Holmes, of Waterboro, and the committal service was read by Dr. M. J. Twomey, also of Waterboro.

Mrs. Clifford Tibbets, of Lyman, gave organ selections before and after the service.

Many beautiful floral tributes were sent by friends. Flowers came from Mansfield from the college, the Masonic orders and the Baptist Church.

The interment was in the Pine Grove Cemetery, Waterboro. The bearers were John Belknap, a nephew, William Straugn, a son-in-law, Judge Albion Pierce, a cousin, the Rev. Lester Holmes, the Rev. M. B. Gile, and Dr. M. J. Twomey.
