residence Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock and interment will be in Pine Grove Cemetery, Falmouth.

George M. Blake 72, engaged actively in business in this City nearly half a century, died in his home at Cumberland Foreside this morning. He had been ill four years.

Mr. Blake was born here, May 17, 1863, and it was his home City 55 years. He first removed to Falmouth Foreside and then a year later to Cumberland Foreside, where he had since owned and occupied the fine residence erected by the late George Burnham. His first business affiliation was with W. L. Blake & Company and he remained there 35 years, being assistant treasurer for a long period. For nearly 17 years he had been president and general manager of the Blake, Rounds Supply Company, though not active for nearly four years.

An active interest in the affairs of the Democratic party all his mature life brought to him several honorary positions. He was a district delegate to the Baltimore National Convention in 1912, was supervisor of the census for this district during 1920 and was treasurer of the Democratic State Committee several years. He was a trustee of the State Hospital and for the Home for Feeble Minded during and after the Curtis State administration and member of the Portland Police Examining Board. Mr. Blake was affiliated with the Masons and Red Men and was a member of the Fern Park and Gunner Clubs.

His near surviving relatives are his wife, Mrs. Victoria A. (Orne) Blake; a son, Clarence V. of Cumberland; two daughters, Mrs. Donald L. Allen of Auburn and Mrs. Philip E. Tukey of Cape Elizabeth; three brothers, William L. and Albert E. of this City and Thomas of New York; a sister, Mrs. George Wooster of this City, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in his
