James W. Bornheimer

shipfitter, truck farmer, flier

SCARBOROUGH - James W. Bornheimer, 89, a longtime shipfitter who during the 1930s flew a biplane and was a town motorcycle policeman, died Monday at his home at 162 Black Point Road.

Mr. Bornheimer was a superintendent of hulls at the East Shipyard of the New England Shipbuilding Co. in South Portland during World War II. There he oversaw hull construction for many of the 266 Liberty ships built there during the war.

Before the war he worked on submarines at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. He was transferred by the government to the new South Portland operation just before the Japanese bombing.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the

During the 1920s, Mr. Bornheimer worked at Turner Center Milk Co., which is where he met and married his wife, Doris Fogg Bornheimer. In the 1930s, he had a Cushman Baking Co. bulk franchise and had the rights to some of its trucking routes in southern Maine.

In the 1930s Mr. Bornheimer was one of the first motorcycle police officers in Scarborough.

"I can vaguely remember it, but I've seen pictures of him," said Lombard. He was also a charter member of the town's fire department.

During that same period he used to enjoy flying a small biplane for pleasure from a runway in a field behind their house. They also had a small truck-garden-farm, raising mostly carrots and string beans.

Though he enjoyed fishing and sailing, he always worked so hard that he never found the time, according to his son. "There were 12 or 15 years where he never took a vacation. It came with the territory, back then."

Born in Waldoboro, a son of Bert L. and Bessie L. Dean Bornheimer, he attended Waldoboro schools. He was a charter member of the Spurwink Rod & Gun Club and a member of the Masons.

Surviving are his wife of 65 years, Doris Fogg Bornheimer, and his son, both of Scarborough; two daughters, Charlene Allen and Barbara Lombard, both of Gorham; a brother, Millard of Duxbury, Mass., and Florida; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

DAVID H. BOSTON

David H. Boston, 66

LEBANON -- David H. Boston, age 66, died Wednesday, Jan. 24, 2007, at Frisbee Memorial Hospital. David was a hard-working, humble man and a true friend to many. He would especially want to be remembered as a proud father of his four children and loving grandfather to his grandsons.

He was born in South Berwick, to Harland and Pearl (Thompson) Boston and attended Berwick Academy. A truck driver for many years, he worked for P.R. Boston, Adams, Auclair, and City Concrete trucking companies. Most recently, he retired from Seacoast Redi-Mix.

He had served as firefighter and fire chief of the William Hill Fire Department in North Berwick, and has passed on his love of fire engines to his grandsons and young friends. He coached little league, was Past Master of the Yorkshire Lodge in North Berwick, a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason and member of the York County Shrine Club. Also a member of the Kora Shrine Temple, he could be seen driving his customized, mini, tractor-trailer truck in formation with the logrollers at statewide parades.

David loved to cook for his family, friends, and community event crowds. He is most famous for his smoked shoulder, fluffy whipped potatoes, and coleslaw dinners and was happiest when surrounded by family and friends at his lakeside, golden pond home.

He will be sadly missed by his longtime companion, Elizabeth Irving, and her family of East Lebanon. He is survived by his four children; their mother, Jean (Guptill) Boston; and two grandsons. His son: Brian Boston, and family, Carol Merrill and Jacob; three daughters: Brenda Boston of North Berwick, Beth (Boston) Smith and her husband Peter of Old Orchard Beach, and Belinda (Boston) Chase and her husband Rick Chase Jr. of Wells; and grandsons Peter Smith II and Zachary Mason Smith of Old Orchard Beach. He was predeceased by his brothers Howard, Carleton, Oliver, Walter, Gene and sister, Maxine Caron.

Calling hours will be held at the Johnson Funeral Home, 26 Market Street, North Berwick, on Saturday, Jan. 27, from 1 to 4 p.m. with a firemen salute at 1:30 p.m. and Masonic Service at 2:30 p.m. A funeral service will immediately follow calling hours at 4

Ezra W. Bosworth

Fryeburg, Feb. 9—Funeral services for Ezra W. Bosworth, 79, who died in Sanford Feb. 1, were conducted at the Funeral Home of F. A. Son, Monday afternoon, the Rev. H. Hoyt of Hiram officiating. Burial was in Fryeburg.

Mr. Bosworth was born in Southamptn, Mass., Jan. 19, 1867. He was educated in the public schools of Southamptn, after which he attended Kissicks Business College in Brooklyn, N. Y. For the eight years following he was employed in engineering work in manufacturing offices and in the office of the Vermont Railroad and the Freight Division of the Boston and Maine Railroad. In 1895 he entered the grain business in Hiram, which was continued successfully for 15 years.

In November, 1910, Mr. Bosworth purchased an interest in the Fryeburg Lumber Company and became treasurer of this concern, carrying on the business until 1922 when the plant was sold to the Conway Box Company, which plant is now operated as Farnsworth Wood Products Corp., Inc. During his association with the Fryeburg Lumber Company, Mr. Bosworth was also connected with various Electric Light Companies in the vicinity of Fryeburg, holding the position of treasurer of the Fryeburg Electric Light Company and the Conway, N. H. Electric Light & Power Co. He continued his connection with the lumber industry, acquiring tracts of timber land.

In 1925 he organized the Fryeburg Motor Company, erecting a steel, fireproof garage on Main Street, carrying a general line of automobile supplies and providing an efficient repair department. He sold this business in 1928.

In civic affairs of the town Mr. Bosworth has taken an active part and has lent his assistance to all improvements for progress and expansion. His fraternal connections included membership in Pythagorean Lodge, No. 11, AF & AM, which Lodge recently presented him with a 50 year gold medal of membership in the fraternity. He was also a member of the Chapter and Commandery of the Masonic Fraternity.

Mr. Bosworth married Jennie Bean of Denmark on Oct. 17, 1892. They had one daughter, Bethesda Inez, who now lives in Hiram. Mrs. Bosworth died in 1898. In 1904, on April 21, Mr. Bosworth married Mary A. Berry of Portland. They have one son Delbert B., who now resides in Portland. A second son, Paul B., died in infancy.

The survivors are: the widow, Mrs. Mary A. Bosworth; the daughter, Bethesda I. Bosworth of Hiram, the son, Delbert Bosworth of Portland; one brother, Wilfred H. Bosworth of Fryeburg; one sister, Mrs. S. P. Woodbury of Millers Falls, Mass., and two grandsons, Conrad B. and Dale B. Bosworth of Portland.
