He was born in Locatze, Poland, a son of Benjamin and Rose Kremenitzer Brenerman. Mr. Brenerman came to the United States as a young boy, settled in Portland and attended local schools, graduating from Portland High School in 1930. 11-25-1991

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

He began his retail career at Markson Brothers on Congress Street, where he worked for 25 years. Later he was manager of the Bell Shop and Woman's Shop, both in downtown Portland, and assistant manager of Arlans Department Store.

Mr. Brenerman later worked part time in the men's department at Sears Roebuck and Co. in the Maine Mall. During that time, he helped repeal the state's man-

For more than 40 years he was a resident of Munjoy Hill, and was a member of the Munjoy Hill Neighborhood Association. He also took part in several parent teacher associations.

Until his death, he was secretary of the board of directors for Cedars/Jewish Home.

David Brenerman said on Friday that his father, who left Europe at a time when Jews were subject to enormous anti-Semitism and poverty, was motivated by "a sense of social justice to help others."

"He really cared about helping people," his son said. "He really loved Portland and he gave back to the community and his religion as much as he could. My mother is the same way. We were all raised that way."

Besides his son, survivors include his wife of 50 years, Hazel Seavey Brenerman; another son, Martin of Longmeadow, Mass.; two daughters, Elene Rudnick of Malden, Mass., and Susan Korobkin of Portland; and seven grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at noon Sunday at the Shaarey Tphiloh Synagogue, 76 Noyes St., with Rabbi Harry Z. Sky and Rabbi Joseph Reifman officiating. Burial will follow at Mount Sinai Cemetery, Hicks Street. A period of mourning will be held from Sunday through Friday at his residence. Arrangements are by the Jewish Funeral Home, 471 Deering Ave.

Mr. Brenerman was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Brotherhood Masonic Lodge and Kora

Ernest E. Brewer, 79, resident of Greater Portland most of his life and long identified with the business life of this City, died today in the Maine General Hospital. He had been ill since early in the Summer, and hospitalized five weeks.

As a boy he lived in Freeport and South Portland, and in early life entered the wholesale dry goods business, first as a salesman and then as a partner in Bolster, Snow & Company, former Middle Street firm, a period of 31 years.

He then engaged in the automobile business, organizing the Maine Motor Car Company in 1912, five years later selling to the Packard people of Boston. He then engaged in the insurance business for some years before he retired from active work. He was treasurer of the Maine Automobile Dealers' Association 15 years.

While a resident of Westbrook in his early manhood he joined Temple Lodge, AF&M, of Westbrook and Westbrook Council. He was also a member of Ivanhoe Lodge, K. of P., and of the Woodfords Club for many years.

He resided in the Deering District much of his life, in recent years at 3 Rackleff Street.

Surviving are a nephew, Lt. Comd. A. Douglass Brewer, USN, now stationed at Elizabeth City, N. C.; a niece, Mrs. James V. McCandless of Washington, D. C., and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Clifford E. M. Brewer of Auburndale, Mass. Mrs. Brewer died in 1933, and an only son, Neal K. Brewer, World War One veteran, in 1938.
