Book keeper age 22

Funeral services were held Sunday in Mt. Vernon where all the family were present, including two sons, A. H. and W. R., and a daughter, Gladys, four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His wife died in Portland in October, 1937, in the 63rd year of their married life.

Mr. Chamberlain was for 20 years treasurer and manager of the Emery Waterhouse Company, with which he was connected for 45 years. On his retirement in 1911 he was a prominent figure in the hardware business nationally, having been president of the New England Wholesale Hardware Association, and a member of the executive committee of the National Hardware Association, in both of which organizations he was a charter member.

Locally, Mr. Chamberlain was a representative citizen. He was president of the Portland Wholesale Merchants' Association for three years, director of the Portland Board of Trade and chairman of the committee on trade relations of that body; also corporator of the Portland Savings Bank and trustee of several benevolent institutions. For two years he was president of the Portland Y. M. C. A. He was a member of and liberal contributor to Williston Church. The charity, however, that was nearest his heart was the Maine Home for Friendless Boys, of which he acted as treasurer and financial sponsor for many years.

In 1912, Mr. Chamberlain sold his home in Portland and bought one of the sightly places on Bridgton Ridge where he had since made his home.
