PHILIP G. COBURN

No. 7411 Noble Philip Graves Coburn of Newport and Haines City, FL was born June 4, 1929 and died peacefully in his sleep October 12, 2004.

He graduated from Newport High School in 1946, the post-graduate program at Maine Central Institute, Pittsfield, and the University of Maine with a degree in Animal Husbandry in 1951. He married Joanne Burke in 1951 and as the fifth generation on the family farm, he and Joanne began their farming career at the Coburn homestead with five cows and 440 acres of farmland. Phil's herd grew to over 400 high-producing Holsteins, which were sold in 1986 in the Whole Herd Buyout Program. His land holdings grew to more than 1000 acres, including 500 acres of fodder corn, for which he was awarded recognition several times from the National Corn Growers' Association. In addition to corn, Phil also raised beef cattle until his retirement in 1996, when the farm was sold. He served on numerous Newport town committees including the Newport School Board and the Budget Committee. In 1962, he became a part-time insurance agent for Farm Family Insurance Company, eventually rising to agency manager and then district manager for the State of Maine. Phil returned to the farm in 1966 and initiated an expansion and modernization program. In 1986, he received the Maine Dairy Industry Leader Award. In addition to serving as a director of New England Milk Producer's Association, he was the vice president of the Maine Farm Bureau Association, American Soil Conservation Service Committeeman, secretary-treasurer of the Penobscot County DHIA, vice president of Yankee Milk, chairman of the board of the Agrimark Co-operative. He was a member of the Corinna United Methodist Church. He was an avid fan and supporter of the University of Maine athletic program and a devoted fan of the Boston Red Sox.

His Masonic affiliations included membership in and Past Master of Parian Lodge No. 160 AM & FM of Corinna. His enrollment in Anah Shriners was recorded as June 19, 1976.
