KILBORN BRAY COE JR.

1921-2007

DUNNELLON, Fla. — Kilborn Bray Coe Jr., 85, World War II Merchant Marine veteran and entrepreneur, better known as "Peter," passed away Feb. 28, 2007, in Dunnellon.

He was born in Augusta, Maine, on May 31, 1921, the son of Kilborn Coe and Barbara Brooks Coe.

His wife, Betsey Johnson Coe, and daughter, Christina Wells Coe, predeceased him.

His son, Jonathon Brooks Coe, lives with wife Miriam in Jamaica Plain, Mass. Peter's sister, Mary Caroline Fernberger, lives in Marblehead, Mass. He leaves wonderful cousins, nieces and nephews who were much loved, and a dear friend, Catherine Ogg.

Peter graduated from Moses Brown School in Providence, R.I., in 1941 and from Maine Maritime Academy, Castine, in the second class of 1943. He served with distinction in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters. He obtained his Master License at the age of 26.

While living on Lee Street in Marblehead, Peter managed his father's Chevrolet dealership in Everett, Mass., before purchasing his own dealership, Coe Chevrolet in Augusta.

During this time in Maine, Peter also served as director of the Bank of Maine in Augusta; local state chairman of Maine Automobile Association; local and state chairman of Ducks Unlimited; volunteered for hospice and Meals on Wheels; was elected to the City Council in Hallowell, where he served three terms; served on the board of the consul in South Bristol; member of local and state boards of CETA and state Chairman of JOBIA; member of the Nature Conservancy; president of the Augusta YMCA; on the board of Damariscotta YMCA; and served on the board of "KIDS."

Peter sold Coe Chevrolet in 1973 and retired. Finding retirement was not to his liking, he opened Peter Coe Realty in Damariscotta, Maine. He retired again and moved to Dunnellon.

For many years, the family owned a home at Sugarloaf, Maine, which they enjoyed for the wonderful friends and skiing.

Peter was always physically active, swimming, skiing, hunting, fishing, golfing and using the fitness room at Rainbow Springs Golf and Country Club.

Peter enjoyed meeting and working with people. He had a great sense of humor, thoroughly enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest.

His ashes will be scattered at sea sometime in the summer.

There will be a memorial service for Peter 11 a.m. EDT on Saturday, May 19, at First Church Boston, 66 Marlborough St., Boston. For more information and directions, call 1-(617) 267-6730 and ask for Ellen Meyers.

WILFRED H. BILL COFFEE

Wilfred H. Bill

Coffee, 82

SOUTH PORTLAND -- Wilfred H. Bill Coffee, 82, of South Portland died peacefully at his home on Sunday, Oct. 14, 2007, with his loving wife and daughters by his side.

Born on Oct. 2, 1925, in Portland, Bill was the son of Wilfred C. and Susanna (Hansen) Coffee. Bill attended Portland schools and later served in the U.S. Coast Guard. For over 31 years, he worked as an engineer for the Maine Central Railroad, retiring in 1987. He was a member of the United Transportation Union, the Masons and VFW Post 832.

Bill's interests included fishing and reading and he was an avid New England Patriots and Boston Red Sox fan. Above all else, Bill was a devoted family man, giving generously of his love and time to his children and grandchildren. He enjoyed attending his grandchildren's school and sporting events and did so for as long as he was able.

Over the years, he helped his children with various home improvement projects and could always be counted on to lend a helping hand. In 1963, Bill built a camp on Peabody Pond in the town of Sebago which became, in his own words, the love of his life. It gave him immense pleasure to be able to provide a place for his children and grandchildren to vacation and create happy family memories.

Bill was predeceased by his beloved son, Ronald D. Coffee, in 1992. He is survived by his wife of 49 years, Janet L. (Heal) Coffee; two daughters, Diane Salamone and her husband Gary of South Portland, Lisa Darling and her husband John of Portland; one son, Timothy Coffee and his wife Jody of Windham; and seven grandchildren, Christopher and Jennifer Salamone, Patrick and Michael Darling, Joshua and Matthew Coffee and Jessica Coffee.

Bill's family would like to thank Hospice of Southern Maine for their kind care and support during the last weeks of his life. The compassion and dignity with which he was treated will never be forgotten.

At Bill's request, there will be no visitation. Burial will be private. Arrangements are under the guidance of Independent Death Care, 471 Deering Ave., Portland. To offer condolences to the family and sign a guest book, go to www.independentdeathcare.com.

Those who wish to remember Bill can do so by making a donation to Hospice of Southern Maine.
