Everett Scott Corthell, 82

CAPE PORPOISE — Everett Scott Corthell, 82, died on April 1, 2002.

He was born on March 1, 1920, in Lexington, Mass., a son of Alonzo and Mae (Monahan) Corthell. He graduated from Stoneham High School in 1938, where he was president of his class.

He was married to Caroline (Adams) Corthell on Feb. 22, 1943 and they were married for more than 59 years.

Mrs. Corthell died just four days prior to his death on March 29, 2002. Married in Lexington, S.C., where they were stationed during World War II, he was assigned shortly after their marriage, to the Persian Gulf Command and was in Iran for two years where he was on the supply line at the last Russian outpost.

Mr. and Mrs. Corthell moved to Cape Porpoise in 1946, first living on Main Street and later living on Ward Road. They worked together owning and operating Corthell's Market on the Pier Road, complete with a small coffee and luncheon counter — The Mug Up — for more than 14 years.

Mr. Corthell also worked at Shaw's Supermarkets as both an assistant store manager and store manager in Saco and Sanford, where employees remember him fondly as a compassionate and effective leader.

Mr. Corthell was proud of his membership in the Masons, and was honored in 1999 as a 50 year member.

Mr. Corthell was also a 50 year member of the Church on the Cape and he and his wife worked side by side volunteering at Church's events for many, many years.

Besides leaving his daughter, Susan Anastasoff, of Debary, Fla., he will be remembered as a devoted friend, a dedicated community member, and a gentle "grandfather" to children on Cape Porpoise.

He was predeceased by his brother, David, who died early this year.

A memorial service for Mr. Corthell will be held in the late spring at the Church on the Cape in Cape Porpoise.

Arrangements are by Bibber Memorial Chapel, Kennebunk.
