Charter Member of Brotherhood Lodge No. 218*Dist. Manager. Raised 1949 Morning Star #17, H. H.*

Gilbert Dolliver Eaton Jr., 73, of Ocean Avenue, vice president of Mainegas & Appliances, died Sunday at a local hospital after a brief illness.

He was born in Lynn, Mass., son of Gilbert D. and Sara Wesson Eaton Sr. While a student at Hebron Academy, he established longstanding records at many New England college and Boy's Club pools. 6-28-1992

Following his graduation from Hebron in 1938, Mr. Eaton served for six years the Navy with the South Pacific Fleet. Shortly after the end of the war in the Pacific, he returned to the Boston area and married June Kennett. They were married for 47 years.

After completing studies at the Massachusetts School of Embalming, he became a licensed funeral director and embalmer in Wolfboro, N.H. He moved to Concord, Mass., to become the service sales manager for the Minute Man Chevrolet Company.

In 1951, he moved to the Portland area to join the UDI (now Suburban Propane) sales organization as district sales manager for Vermont and New Hampshire. In 1962, he accepted the position of manager at Maingas & Appliances Inc., where he later became vice president. Upon his retirement in 1982, Maingas & Appliances was the largest independent propane gas and appliance sales company in New England.

Mr. Eaton was a founding member of Portland's Brotherhood Masonic Lodge, where he was a life member. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a lifetime member of the Kora Temple Shrine, a member of the Portland Rotary Club and a promoter of Junior Achievement in this area.

He enjoyed reading.

Surviving, besides his wife, are a son, Gilbert D. III of Farmington; two daughters, Gaye E. Matthews of Gray and Vicki J. Marion of Windham; a sister, Virginia Minnis of Omaha, Neb.; and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. at Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, 199 Woodford St.

Raymond E. Eaton, a former member of the Rockland Wholesale Grocery Company, died Wednesday night in a local hospital whither he was taken two weeks ago, suffering from an ailment which surgery could not successfully cope, and at no time was a better than even chance accorded for his recovery.

The funeral services will be held at the Burpee parlors Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. Dr. John Smith Lowe officiating. The bearers will be Percy E. Demmons, Walter F. Bowe, L. E. Jones, Edward R. Veazie, Charles W. Sheldon and Philip Sulides.

The deceased was born in Stonington June 7, 1876, and had made his home in Rockland the past 48 years. After coming to this city he was in the grocery business for himself a while, later entering the employ of Thorndike & Hix, and acted as salesman in the Eastern Maine territory.

While on the Thorndike & Hix staff he was closely associated with Fred A. Carter and Percy Demmons, and it was this trinity which successfully operated the Rockland Wholesale Grocery Company for a number of years. Their well earned retirement came about with the sale of this well known wholesale house to M. B. & C. O. Perry.

Mr. Eaton was a 32d degree Mason, the parent organization being Rockland Lodge, F.A.M. He had also been a member for many years of the Rockland Rotary Club.

His cheerful spirit won for him friends far and near and in all the walks of life which he frequented his genial companionship will be sorely missed.

Mr. Eaton is survived by his second wife (formerly Maude S. Grant) and a sister, Mrs. P. S. Jolly of Staten Island, N. Y.

Remarks

Simeon E. Eaton

Funeral services for Simeon E. Eaton, 81, lifelong resident of Brownfield and chairman of the board of selectmen of that town, were held this past week from Brownfield Church.

Mr. Eaton, whose wife, Lillian Pendexter Eaton, died eight years ago, was a prominent lumber dealer during the greater part of his life and was active up to his death, which occurred Feb. 14 at Fryeburg. He also was a dealer in livestock at Brownfield.

His business integrity and interest in civic affairs made for him a host of friends. Besides serving as chairman of the Brownfield board of selectmen for 22 years, he was a director on the board of the West Oxford Agricultural Society for many years and was a former president of the Consumers' Electric Light Company of Brownfield. He was a member of the Shepherd River Lodge, A. F. and A. M.

Surviving are one son, Ralph B. Eaton of Brownfield; a daughter, Mrs. Leah A. Thomas of this city; a sister, Mrs. Georgia Boynton of Portland, and two brothers, Wirt V. Eaton of Brownfield and Fred S. Eaton of Bridgton.

Interment was at the Brownfield Cemetery.
