W. R. Elliott Dies At Skowhegan, 68

SKOWHEGAN, Oct. 31 (Special)—William Richard Elliott, 68, postmaster here from 1922 to 1934, for many years connected with the Anderson Woolen Mill and its successor, the American Woolen Company, and town clerk and tax collector from 1934 until his retirement in 1940, died at his home here today.

A native of North Andover, Mass., and graduated from the high school there, he came to Skowhegan when a young man to become private secretary to Lewis Anderson, his uncle, pioneer woolen manufacturer, later becoming paymaster at the mill and continuing in that capacity when the American Woolen Company took over the mill in 1900. He served as paymaster until 1917, when he became general superintendent of the three mills of the company.

He was a past master of Somerset Lodge, AF&AM, member of Somerset Chapter, RAM, and for 38 years was recorder of DeMolay Commandery, K.T. He was also a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and of Carrabasset Lodge, IOOF.

Among surviving relatives are his widow, Mrs. Alta Savage Elliott and a daughter, Mrs. Adrian Laney, also of Skowhegan.
