His family moved from Camden to North Newport in 1917 and to Corinna in 1918 and located at the corner of the St. Albans Road and the Packard Road, where some members of the family lived into the 1990s. In 1938, Jerome and his late wife, Hazel, moved to his present home on the Pleasant Vale Road where they established a poultry business which lasted until their retirement in 1974. At age 4, Jerome began school in the local one-room school located next to the family farm. His mother was his first teacher. Jerome entered Corinna Union Academy in the fall of 1928 and served as president of his class during his four years of high school. He graduated as salutatorian in 1932. In the fall of 1933, Jerome entered the University of Maine at Orono where he studied for two years. Jerome was a self-employed poultry farmer for 36 years. He served as selectman or assessor for the town of Corinna from 1937 to 1956. Jerome joined Parian Masonic Lodge No. 160 in 1942, and served as master in 1948 and 1949, and received his 55-year membership pin in 2002. He was elected to the board of trustees of CUA in 1948, vice-president in 1964, and served as president for 34 of the 57 years he was on the board. In 2006, he was made an honorary member of the CUA Trustees Board. Jerome represented Corinna on the first board of directors of the Maine School Administrative District No. 48 from 1967 to 1969. His legislative service began with his election in 1952 to serve out the term of his father who was elected in the fall of 1951 and because of sickness was unable to serve. He was re-elected as a member of the Maine House of Representatives for the 96th session in 1953. In the fall of 1978, he was elected to the Maine Senate and was a member of that body for the next 14 years, 109th-115th sessions. During his tenure in Augusta, he served under Governors Payne, Cross, Brennan, and McKernan. Jerome joined Maine Farm Bureau in 1954 and served as president for 11 years beginning in the mid 1950s. lobsterman, pound keeper

SOUTH THOMASTON - Robert Francis Emerson, 85, of Elm Street died Monday at his home.

Born at Camp Ellis in Saco, son of Everett B. and Almira Richardson Emerson, he served in the Army with the amphibious engineers during World War II and later in the merchant marine, stationed in Scotland.

On Feb. 21, 1936, he married Arlene Norwood.

Mr. Emerson and his wife lived in the Biddeford area for several years and enjoyed going to Old Orchard and dancing to the music of the big bands.

In 1946, they moved to South Thomaston, where Mr. Emerson was a self-employed as a lobsterman. For 20 years, Mr. Emerson was a pound keeper for the A.C. McLoon Lobster Co. on Hewett Island in the Mussel Ridge Channel. During the summer months, his family joined him on the island.

He was a member of the Knox Masonic Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star. A dedicated husband and father, Emerson will be remembered as a hard worker, his family said.

Surviving is his wife, Arlene N. Emerson of South Thomaston; a daughter, Barbara McClintick of Waldo-boro; two sisters, Annabelle Pendleton of Saco and Winifred Southerland of Punta Gorda, Fla.; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

There will be no visiting hours. A graveside service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Village Cemetery with the Rev. Ralph Miller officiating. Arrangements are by Carpenter Funeral Home, Rockland.

Charles E. Emery

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Limington, Feb. 8.— Funeral services for Charles E. Emery, 85, widely-known resident of this town, a former town official and former general store and hotel proprietor, who died suddenly Feb. 1, were conducted Tuesday. The Rev. Howard O. Hough of Portland, assisted by the Rev. A. A. Gaisford, pastor of the local church, officiated, and burial was in the Limington cemetery. The bearers were Harry L. Boothby, L. W. Pillsbury, Alvah P. Weeman and Howard E. Edgecomb.

Mr. Emery was a native of Limington, the son of Almon and Lucy Hanson Emery, and he married Addie E. Harmon of Saco, Sept. 30, 1876. Six children were born to them, two, Allie J. and Chesley C., dying in infancy, and the eldest Lucy Emery Marks, in 1916. Surviving are two sons, Harold B. Emery of this town, former County Treasurer, and Dr. Grover C. Emery of Brooklyn, N. Y., a daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Shaw of Kezar Falls; a sister, Mrs. Cora Hayes of Manchester, N. H.; eight grandchildren, three great-grandchildren and eight nieces and nephews.

For 32 years Mr. Emery was proprietor of the Limington Hotel in conjunction with his store business, and he was also for some time a cattle buyer and real estate dealer. Three years ago he received a medal from Adoniram Lodge of Masons in recognition of 50 years of membership and at the time of his death was the only Mason in town having received this honor.

He was an ardent Democrat of the old school, had served the town as a member of the school committee and as treasurer, and in many other ways he had served the community whenever an opportunity presented itself. He was one of those responsible for bringing telephone service to the town and one of a group going to Augusta to urge the passage of the Osipee Trail through Limington.

He had seen many changes in business in his lifetime. When he started as a storekeeper there were no paper bags and all merchandise such as sugar and meal was wrapped in sheets of paper. Spices were sold in bulk and baker's food was unknown.
