Carroll H. Evans

church organist, shipyard supervisor

KITTERY - Carroll H. Evans, 88, of Brave Boat Harbor Road died Friday at Sturdy Hospital in Attleboro, Mass.

Born in York, he was a son of John N. and Sarah Alta Hilton Evans. When his mother died of pneumonia three weeks after his birth, he was brought up by foster parents, Elmer E. and Louise L. Riley, at his lifelong home, Landfall at Kittery Point.

He attended Kittery schools and graduated from Traip Academy in 1925. In 1930, he graduated with a specialty in the organ from the New England Conservatory of Music.

For 10 years, he served as organist at the South Unitarian Church in Portsmouth, N.H., then for 21 years at First Congregational Church in Kittery Point. For shorter periods during his student years, he played for the Second Congregational Christian Church, the Second Methodist Church in Kittery and the Channing Memorial Church in Newton Corner, Mass. He also served as the Naval Lodge of Masons' organist for 20 years.

In 1936, he worked in the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard as a laborer and progressed through the public works, production planning and supply departments to become head of the technical division, from which he retired in 1966.

During World War II, he organized and developed the technical division in the supply department, a new concept ordered for all naval yards by the Bureau of Ships.

Mr. Evans was a life member of the Naval Lodge of Masons, its oldest member, a past master and an officer for 30 years. He was also a member of the Maine Royal Arch Chapter, St. Armand Commandery of the Knights Templar, Kora Temple Shrine, and the First Congregational Church.

Mr. Evans served the church as chairman of its board of trustees for nine years and installed the Memorial Cartilion in the church.

He also was a past patron of Piscataqua Chapter, Order of the Easter Star.

His wife, Dora M. Dunning Evans, died previously.

Surviving are a daughter, Nancy Evans Mott of Attleboro, Mass.; and a son, David M. of Kittery; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday from the First Congregational Church. Arrangements are by Wilson-Cooper Funeral Home, 21 Rogers Road, Kittery.

Biddeford Pool Hotel Proprietor Suffers Heart Attack While Driving Here

Henry D. Evans, 69, proprietor of the Ocean View Hotel at Biddeford Pool, died suddenly Monday night at the wheel of his car as he was attempting to turn around on Sewall Street. Dr. Wilbur P. Leighton, medical examiner, said heart disease was the cause of death.

Mr. Evans, accompanied by his wife, was driving through Portland and became confused in following Route One and had turned into Sewall Street by mistake. He had asked residents of the vicinity for directions and returned to the car and was attempting to turn around when he slumped over in the seat.

He had been proprietor of the hotel several years and previously had been associated with his brother, Thomas L. Evans, in a variety store at Biddeford. He was a member of Masonic bodies and of the White Congregational Church.

Mr. Evans is survived, beside his widow and brother, by a daughter, Miss Mary Evans.
