Born in Paris. Tue 5-30-1862

South Paris, Feb. 25 — Arthur E. Forbes, 76, a country editor for 50 years who would never allow in his paper an item that would give offense or hurt anyone, and his wife, Mrs. Maud Douglas Forbes, 73, will be laid at rest side by side in the village cemetery here Monday afternoon.

Mr. Forbes died in Augusta this morning following a long illness, and two hours later the death of Mrs. Forbes occurred here. Funeral services for the couple will be conducted at the Huff funeral parlors at 2 p. m. and the community will pay fitting tribute to the couple.

Mr. Forbes was born in this town, the son of Elbridge and Angeline Thayer Forbes, attended the town schools and completed his education at St. Lawrence University, from which he was graduated in 1886.

Soon after he purchased the Oxford Democrat, one of the famous weeklies in this part of the State, and with George M. Atwood published the paper at Paris Hill, where the county offices were then located. When the county seat was established at South Paris, the Democrat moved here and Mr. Forbes continued to edit it until its merger with the Norway Advertiser a few years ago.

Mr. Forbes served in the Maine Legislature in 1919 and 1921, he was a past master of Paris Lodge of Masons and a past district deputy of the order, a past high priest of Oxford Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and a past worthy patron of the Order of the Eastern Star. He was also affiliated with the Methodist Church.
