LEWISTON -- Robert E. Frederickson, 74, a resident of Lewiston, died Saturday evening, Feb. 4, at St. Mary's Medical Center in Lewiston, where he had been a patient since last Wednesday.

He was born June 25, 1931, in Bath, the son of Bernice Harnish and Gus Frederickson. He graduated from Boothbay High School and joined the Navy right after graduation. Robert married Margaret Lawler in 1960 in Ogden, Utah. He retired from the Navy as senior chief after 23 years. They moved to Monmouth in 1969 and bought a farm, where he grew Christmas trees. He also worked for Boston Coal Co. in Gardiner. He graduated from the University of Maine at Augusta in 1979 with a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Robert was a member of the following organizations: Monmouth Masonic Lodge, where he served as master of the lodge several times; the National Rifle Association; and the Maine Christmas Tree Association, of which he was executive secretary for many years. He loved the outdoors, loved fishing and hunting, was an avid fly fisherman, and tied his own flies.

He leaves his wife of 45 years, Margaret, of Lewiston; daughter Laura Verrill and her husband, Ray, of Auburn; two sons, Joseph and his wife, Diane, of Gardiner, and James and fiancée Adrienne Perreault of Biddeford; grandchildren J'amie, Nathan and Jason Verrill, Jennifer Ashley Carter and Samantha Frederickson; two stepgranddaughters, Misty and Amber Michaud; three step-great-grandchildren, Brandon, Griffin and Lillian Matos; a brother, Charles White of New Mexico; and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents and a sister, Martha Koldewyn.

A Masonic funeral service and military honors will be held 1 p.m. Wednesday at Bragdon-Finley Funereal Home, 707 Main St., Monmouth. Interment will occur at the convenience of the family. Messages of condolence may be made to bfineyfh@adelphia.net.

cial)—Fred H. Freeman, 78, for many years proprietor of a grocery business here, and for several years the South Windham postmaster, died early today at his home after a long illness. Mr. Freeman had retired from business in 1913, selling the store to his son Harlan D. Freeman and his son-in-law, Elden L. Skillings.

Born in a home on the River Road, Feb. 21, 1957, Mr. Freeman received his education in the little red school house in the Bodge District. He was fired with ambition to own his own business while still quite young, and started a grocery store with a loan of $100, and $3 in cash he had saved. Except for a time he was employed by Hill and Mayberry while looking for a more suitable location for his business, and the term he served as postmaster during the Cleveland administration, he was constantly in business for himself until his retirement.

Mr. Freeman was a member of the Orient Lodge, Knights of Pythias for 53 years, and for 35 years was master of the exchequer. He was a charter member of Harmony Lodge, F. & A. M. of Gorham. A life-long member of the South Windham Universalist Church he had been a deacon for many years. Mr. Freeman was also a member of the South Windham Community Club and president of the Hillside Cemetery Association.

Married in 1880 to Sadie Dole, Mr. Freeman and his wife would have celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Thanksgiving Day.

Surviving are his wife and a son, Harlan D. Freeman, both of South Windham; a daughter, Mrs Bertha R. Skillings and two grandsons, Francis and Vernon Skillings, all of Fryeburg; a brother, Charles H. Freeman of Windham, and several nieces and nephews.
