M. R. GODING

DIES SUDDENLY

Dec. 12.
Marshall R. Goding, a prominent accountant, and for many years cashier of the Casco National bank, died suddenly this morning at his residence, 69 Neal street. Mr. Goding had been ailing of late, but last night was apparently in his usual health, his death, which was due to heart failure, occurring shortly after midnight.

He was the son of Ephraim and Harriet Goding and was a native of this city, where he received his early education, graduating from the high school. He then entered the employ of the Casco National bank as clerk and gradually worked his way to the position of teller and then cashier. He was with the bank for about 25 years. A few years ago Mr. Goding resigned to become a public accountant, having an office in the Masonic temple. He was a prominent member of Mount Vernon Royal Arch chapter. He leaves a wife, two daughters, Miss Alice Goding of Portland and Bertha, who is a nurse in the Roosevelt hospital in New York, and one brother, Edwin L., of this city. A brother, Henry F., died several months ago in Florida.

Myron S. Gold, a retired Portland police officer and a recent candidate for City Council, died at a local hospital early Friday after a short illness. He was 58.

Mr. Gold was a foot patrolman for more than two decades. At the time of his retirement in 1984, he was among the best-known figures in the Congress-Middle Street areas.

"He treated everyone with respect," said Sgt. Joel Barnes, who served with Mr. Gold. "Even people he locked up would probably be thanking him the next day."

"He was of an age where he was from the old school, where police sometimes treated people very roughly. But he didn't. He was truly a nice guy."

Mr. Gold was born in Portland, and graduated from Portland High School.

He was a top swimmer, and recently received a plaque from the Maine Sports Hall of Fame honoring lettermen from the outstanding Portland High varsity swim team of 1949-50.

He spent 25 years on the force, and retired when he was 50.

In recent years he had worked part-time at Aubuchon Hardware at Woodford's Corner.

Some of his retirement time was spent in politics. Last spring he ran for the District 3 seat of the Portland City Council.

Though he was defeated by incumbent Thomas H. Allen, family members said it gave him an opportunity to speak out on community issues.

"I think he ran with a we'll-see-what-happens attitude," said Julie Neill of Portland, his daughter. "He probably would have been surprised, and nervous, if he had won."

"He liked to keep busy, though, and beside running for office he fished, took the boat out on the lake, and worked part-time," she said.

Mr. Gold was a member of the Masons, Kora Temple Shriners, Lewiston, and the Woodfords Social Club.

Surviving are his wife, Josephine; a son, Andrew, of Portland; two daughters, Leslie McCrillis of Gorham and Julie Neill of Portland; a sister, Sylvia Koch of New York; and a brother, David, of Portland.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Skowhegan, Aug. 14—Leslie H.

Goldsmith, 55, prominent Skowhegan resident and cashier of the First National Bank here, committed suicide in the bathroom of his home here at 12.40 p. m. to-and Deputy Henry A. Lessard, together with Acting County Medical Examiner Dr. Allan J. Stinchfield, investigated and that Dr. Stinchfield pronounced the case one of suicide.

Authorities could advance no motive for the act as Mr. Goldsmith seemingly had been in good spirits of late and about his work at the bank as usual. He committed the act while other members of his family were attending church services. Death was instantaneous, Deputy Sterry said. Reached late tonight, Dr. Stinchfield pronounced the case one of suicide. Goldsmith had been cashier of the bank for years and was one of the town's leading citizens.

He was a member of the Federated Church, the local Masonic bodies and of the Rotary Club. He was also a director of the bank.

Mr. Goldsmith is survived by his widow, two sons, Richard Goldsmith, a teacher at Bridgton Academy, and Alvin Goldsmith, a student in the Skowhegan High School, and his father, J. Fred Goldsmith of West Gardiner.

He was a native of West Gardiner, the son of J. Fred and Mrs. Eldra J. Goldsmith.
