Raymond D. Groves

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Skowhegan, Dec. 13 — The funeral of Raymond D. Groves, 47, important figure in the development of the summer tourist business in his native town, Smithfield, was held at the Church in Smithfield, Tuesday. Burial was in the village cemetery in Smithfield.

Mr. Groves died at his home Dec. 6, after a long illness. Born Sept. 7, 1894, he was the son of Daniel and Lennie Mace Groves. As a youth he was employed in the shoe factory in Norridgewock.

His interest in summer camps started with his employment at Clement's Camps, and then for seven years at the North Pond Club.

In 1916 Groves purchased the site for his Sunset Camps in the heart of Smithfield village bordering on North Pond, then a shore lot with only a few boathouses on it. He built his home there and improved the beach by hauling hundreds of yards of fine sand to it.

There are now 19 cottages, a lunch room, dance hall and many bathhouses at Sunset Camps.

Mr. Groves was a member of Fairview Grange, Smithfield and the Masonic lodge in Norridgewock. He served many years as a member of the Smithfield School Committee and was active in town affairs.

Surviving besides his parents, are two daughters, Louise Kathleen, and Daisy Mae; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Bickford of Corinna and Hazel Groves of Daytona, Florida; two brothers, Robert Groves, Smithfield, and Carl Groves, Westbrook, and several nieces and nephews.

R. 5-10-1948, Jephtha #95, Clinton, Conn.

UNION — Frank B. Grusik, 80, of Union, formerly of Oldsaybrook, Conn., passed away at his home Monday, Dec. 30, 2002 from complications of asbestos poisoning. He was surrounded by his family: William A. Grusik and wife Mary Lou, and dear friend and caregiver Marilyn Montano, and his pet dog, Nanook.

Frank was born Jan. 30, 1922 in Jersey City, N.J., a son of Boniface and Julia Jassawizz Grusik. After high school, Frank began working at a shipyard. He was an apprentice as a gang worker, running wires throughout ships under construction. He later joined on as an oiler boy and started his career in the Merchant Marines.

Over the years, Frank worked his way up to chief engineer and spent time in the service on ships during World War II as a lieutenant in the Merchant Marines.

Throughout his life at sea, he also worked on several shipping and cruise lines. At the age of 68, Frank retired as marine engineer-first class.

A longtime survivor of prostate cancer, Frank was 30 days away from reaching his 81st birthday.

Frank moved to Maine from Connecticut after shooting his 1st deer in Maine. He purchased a house in Union as a hunting lodge, but lived in Camden for several years before moving to Union. He loved the outdoors for hunting, walking, feeding birds and semi-wild cats outside of his home, and simply for nature.

He enjoyed taking kids to the Shrine Circus and was a member of the Kora Shrine Temple, the Mid-Coast Shrine Club, and the Waldo County Shrine Club. He was also a member of the Union Masonic Lodge #31 AF & AM, and the Elks Club in Connecticut.

He was predeceased by his wife, Miriam Grusik, on Jan. 26, 1999.

He is survived by his son, William A. Grusik and his wife, Mary Lou of Portland; dear friend and caregiver, Marilyn Montano of Clark's Island; and his pet dog, Nanook of Union.

At Frank's request, no services will be held. Contributions may be made in Frank's memory to H.O.M.E., P.O. Box 10, Orland, Maine 04472, or to an animal shelter of one's choice. Services are under the care of Hall Funeral Home, Waldoboro.
