Kenneth F. Hatfield

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Calais, Jan. 4—Death came suddenly to Kenneth F. Hatfield, 46, who was found dead in his apartment on North Street, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 26, by his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks.

Mr. Hatfield had apparently suffered a heart attack during the night following a happy Christmas Day at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, where members of his two sisters' families had been entertained.

Quiet and retiring, he possessed many friends. He was an artist of ability and left beautiful book plates and other expressions of his talent.

Son of the late David and Helen Forbes Hatfield, he was born Nov. 27, 1889, in St. John, N. B. He came to Calais at the age of four years, and served during the World War in a chemical department at Stamford, Conn. After the war he was cost accountant for the Bath Iron Works. He returned in 1925 to Calais where he made his home with his two sisters.

He is survived by his widow and two sisters, Mrs. Edna Spurling and Mrs. Charles Cook, both of this town; and one brother, Stewart, of St. John, N. B.

The local Masonic lodge had charge of the funeral services, which were held at the home of Mrs. Spurling, with the Rev. W. Goodman and the Rev. Benjamin Clark officiating. Interment was in St. John, N. B.

Sea Captain - born Columbia Falls 10-4-1860

Charles W. Hathaway

(Communicated)

At the age of 77 years, George W. Hathaway of this City, prominent Mason and sea captain, died Thursday, Jan. 13.

Mr. Hathaway obtained without seeking it an impressive weight among his fellow men. For a period of 35 years he was a sea captain; and for 20 years he was engaged in railroad work, holding an important position. He was always conscientious in his effort to discharge his responsibilities successfully.

A highly respected and honored member of the Warren Lodge, F. and A. M., of Machias, Mr. Hathaway was outstanding for his promotion of benevolence and charity.

The treasure of discipline and love were found in the life of this honored citizen. His was a life of simplicity, integrity, activity, religion, frascanty, and generosity. He was liberal in his contributions to those in need. No effort was too great, no experience too costly to hinder him in his donation to the less fortunate.

The Rev. Curtis Stanley of Westbrook officiated at services for Mr. Hathaway last week. A Masonic funeral service will be conducted in Forest City Cemetery next Spring.

He is survived by his wife, a sister, Nina Hathaway, and a brother, Frank Hathaway of Machias.
