YARMOUTH — John Hilton, 89, who formerly operated a restaurant here, died late Tuesday in a Bath hospital following a brief illness. He lived at 3 Roberts Road.

With his wife, the former Clara Ramig, Mr. Hilton ran Clara and John's Tea Room on Route 1 for 17 years. Noted for its lobster luncheon and homemade pastry, the tea room was cited for excellence three times by national restaurant rating services. The Hiltons retired three years ago.

He was born in New Brunswick, May 23, 1880, the son of Henry and Priscilla Moore Hilton. He came to Maine as a child and attended Maine schools.

He had lived in Yarmouth for the past 45 years.

As a young man, Mr. Hilton was a lobsterman and a captain on sailing vessels, once winning a silver cup in a race from Marblehead to Bermuda. With his brother he established one of the state's first wholesale crabmeat businesses, the present Day's Crabmeat Shop in Yarmouth.

He was a member of Freeport Lodge, A.F.&A.M., the Odd Fellows Lodge of Pembroke and the Freeport Knights of Pythi-former Maine State Police deputy chief

FARMINGTON - Ronald A. Hiltz, 62, a retired lieutenant colonel in the Maine State Police, and a security officer and private investigator, died Sunday at a Waterville hospital.

During his 22 years in the State Police, Mr. Hiltz served in a variety of capacities. After graduating in 1956

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

from the Maine State Police Academy, he began as a rural patrol officer in Dixfield.

He went on to become a field supervisor, troop commander, division captain, field captain, field forces commander and deputy chief. Most of his duty was in Central Maine, although his first command was Troop F in Houlton.

He retired from the force in 1978 as a lieutenant colonel and second in command to Col. Allan Weeks, then chief.

"He was an outstanding public servant," said Al Hensabee, a fellow trooper who also worked as a private investigator with Mr. Hiltz. "He was one of the most dedicated troopers I ever met - an honest, fair hard-working man. He stressed safety and public relations."

Mr. Hiltz was 41 when he retired from the State Police. "He retired for only a day," said his daughter, Karen Hiltz. He started in right away as the head of collections for a bank in Waterville. Then he worked for about a year for the Comprehensive Employment & Training Act, known as CETA.

From 1983-89 he was director of security at Sugarloaf/USA ski resort, overseeing a team of about 10 security officers. "He loved his job at Sugarloaf," said his daughter. "He established that security force, and it was recognized as one of the most professional in the state."

In recent years, Mr. Hiltz was a Franklin County deputy sheriff and a licensed private investigator. He investigated fraudulent workers' compensation claims for D'Angelo Insurance in Waterville, retiring in January because of ill health.

"That job involved a lot of surveillance," said his daughter. "He didn't like to see people get away with things they shouldn't."

Born in Farmington, a son of Raymond and Ruth Collins Hiltz, he graduated from Farmington High School and also attended a machinist school in Great Lakes, Ill. He was a machinist's mate in the Navy during the Korean War, serving in Naples, Italy, aboard the USS Adirondack, a radio ship.

He was a member of the Farmington Lodge of Masons, Royal Arch Masons, Knights Templar and Kora Temple Shrine. He was a former member of the board of the Maine Criminal Justice Academy, a member of the Maine Chiefs of Police Association and the International Law Enforcement Officers Association, a 25-year member of the American Legion and a 13-year member of the Farmington Elks Lodge.

He enjoyed fishing, hunting and golf, and was a longtime member of Wilson Lake Country Club. Surviving are a son, Gary of Wilton; a daughter, Karen Hiltz of Reading, Mass.; two brothers, Raymond Jr. of Industry and Rupert of Farmington; and three grandchildren.

A funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Willes Funeral Home, 5 Hill St. The funeral cortege, escorted by the Maine State Police, will proceed from there to the Maine Veterans Memorial Cemetery, Augusta, for a 1 p.m. burial.

Was Life Member Of Casco Lodge, And Lobster Packer In Portland 37 Years

YARMOUTH, Aug. 12. (Special)—Edgar Eugene Hill, 77, a life member of Casco Lodge, F. & A. M., of this place and for many years employed by Portland wholesale fish houses as a lobster packer, died this morning at his home on Pleasant Street. While he had been in ill health for some time his death was unexpected.

Born on Cousins Island Oct. 4, 1852, Mr. Hill received his schooling on the island. On July 2, 1890, he married Miss Carrie Wilson of this village, and their entire married life was spent here. For 34 years he was employed by the former Portland fish firm of S. A. Skillings & Son, and subsequently with the Willard & Daggett Company there until three years ago, when he retired.

He had been a member of Casco Lodge of Masons for 55 years and was the possessor of the 50-year gold medal from the Grand Lodge noting membership of half a century or more in the order. He was also a member of Cumberland Royal Arch Chapter and of Winnegance Chapter, O. E. S., also of Yarmouth.

Surviving besides his wife are a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Woodman of Yarmouth; a sister, Mrs. Ida Mountfort of Waterville, three nephews and four nieces.

A masonic funeral service will be held at his home Saturday at 2 p. m., the Rev. W. A. Richmond, pastor of the First Parish Congregational Church, conducting the regular service. Interment will be in Old Ledge Cemetery, Yarmouth.
