Remarks

Born 11-30-1907

Donald B. Hodgdon, 42, of 902 Brighton Avenue, collapsed and died Thursday afternoon while directing a work crew from the Portland Gas Light Company a short distance from his home. He was foreman.

Cause of death was given as heart attack, although a medical examiner's report was not immediately available.

Fellow employes told police that Hodgdon had climbed from a ditch they were working in complaining of chest pains. As he sat down at the side of the ditch, he suddenly toppled forward.

Mr. Hodgdon was born here Nov. 30, 1906, son of Harold and Harriett Hodgdon. He attended local schools and had been employed by the gas company nine years. He was a member of the Cornerstone Lodge, AF&AM, and other Masonic bodies—Kora Shrine, Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite and Legion of Honor. He attended Woodfords Congregational Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Elsie Haines Hodgdon, a step-daughter, Mrs. Robert Donovan; a sister, Mrs. Charles Baemier, his father, a brother, Richard W., all of Portland, and several aunts.

WESTPORT — Paul L. Hodgdon, a selectman in this island community for nearly 40 years, died Tuesday at his home after a brief bout with cancer.

Mr. Hodgdon, 62, lived on Route 144.

In his years as a selectman, Mr. Hodgdon was contested at the ballot box only twice. "He was doing a good job, and everybody was glad to let him do it," said Virginia Anderson, the town's tax collector and treasurer.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

Because of his illness, Mr. Hodgdon resigned his position as first selectman as of the March 23 town meeting. He had also served on most other town committees through the years, including the school board and the planning board.

"He was accommodating, good-hearted and an excellent businessman," said Herbert B. Cromwell Sr., who was second selectmen with him for eight years. "He was just a generous man."

"He drove the school bus on the island when I was a kid," said former Road Commissioner Francis Cromwell. "He wired the firehouse, contributed his labor to the town hall. He'd fix the furnace at the town hall and not charge for it."

"People would come over angry about something, and Paul would get up from the supper table and discuss the issue with them and, by the time they were ready to leave, they felt better about their problem," said Mrs. Hodgdon.

Born in Porter, a son of Lester and Helena Higgins Hodgdon, he graduated from Dover (N.H.) High School in 1947. He moved to Westport Island and married the former Phyllis Colby on Dec. 4, 1948.

Mr. Hodgdon owned and operated Paul L. Hodgdon and Sons Electrical Contractors for many years. He started the business across the street from his home in the mid-1950s. His sons, Paul K. and Dale M., will continue that business.

He was a past master of the Lincoln Lodge of Masons in Wiscasset, and a member of the Bath Lodge of Elks and the Westport Community Association.

A son, Alan J., died last year.

Surviving are his wife and two sons, all of Westport; five daughters, Mrs. William (Linda) DeLong and Gail Matteson, both of Westport, Donna L. Hodgdon of Brunswick, Karen Belknap of Wiscasset and Mrs. Richard (Beverly) Pye of Woolwich; four brothers, Lester W. Jr. and Alfred, both of Westport, Carl of Lewiston and Robert of Dover, N.H.; 18 grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Woolwich-Wiscasset Baptist Church. The Rev. Stephen A. Daniels will officiate. Burial will be in Higgins Family Cemetery. Arrangements are by Mayo, Curtis & Hill Funeral Home, Bath.
