William J. Landers

William J. Landers, notice of whose death was received in Gardiner Thursday night, passed away in a Boston hospital of Bright's disease, aged 67 years. He was a native of Gardiner and was the son of the late David and Margaret (Millay) Landers of this city. He attended the public schools of the city and when a young man was employed as a salesman in Texas. Later he was for several years bookkeeper for the P. C. Holmes Co. of Gardiner, after which he joined R. B. Caldwell in the publishing of the Kennebec Reporter. This was continued until 23 years ago, when it was consolidated with the Gardiner Home Journal and the daily published. He was connected with this for several years and then started the Independent, which was published about four years. He then went to Boston, where he has since resided.

The deceased was a member of various Masonic bodies and was a Past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Maine. He is survived by a widow and a daughter, who have the sincere sympathy of many friends here.

The remains will arrive in Gardiner Saturday afternoon for interment in the family lot at Oak Grove cemetery. Members of Maine Commandery No. 1 will have charge of the services.

BELIEVE LANE VICTIM OF SHOCK WAITING FOR FERRY

News of Contractor's Death Shock to Lewiston

LEWISTON, Oct. 27.—It is now thought that George W. Lane, Sr., of Pierce street, whose body was found floating in Boston Harbor Saturday afternoon, suffered a shock while waiting for a ferry, and fell from the wharf into the water. Nothing on his person had been disturbed and there were no signs of violence. Medical Examiner George W. McGrath of Suffolk County rendered his decision to this effect.

News of his death was a great shock to people here, with whom Mr. Lane was a much respected and greatly admired citizen. Mr. Lane left for Boston Thursday in his usual health, and stayed at the Youngs Hotel as was his custom. He appeared in the best of spirits there and his personal effects, left at the hotel, gave no signs of a premeditated death. It is thought he was on his way to Chelsea, where he had friends.

Mr. Lane came to this town from Pittsfield about 45 years ago and was perhaps the best known contractor and builder in the city. He was about 70 years old and leaves several children, all prominent in the affairs of the city. George W. Lane, Jr., is treasurer of the Lewiston Trust Company and State Senator-elect Harry Lane was long since associated with his father in business.

directly to the home on Pierce street. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been announced, but it is probable that the Masons will bear a part in the observances as Mr. Lane was prominent in that order.

Almon G. Lane of Nichols street is the youngest son, and there is one daughter, Mrs. Alice Lane Cobb, wife of Ralph O. Cobb, of Auburn, also prominent socially and in business. The body is expected to arrive in this city today, and will be taken LEWISTON (AP) — A funeral service will be held here at 3 p.m. Friday for George W. Lane Jr., a prominent banker. He died Tuesday at his Auburn home at the age of 82.

Lane acquired many business interests during his career and belonged to numerous fraternal organizations.

He was an influential leader of the Maine Democratic party for many years and the party's unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1942.

Although he never finished grammar school, Lane served as secretary, treasurer and a fellow of Bates College, which gave him an honorary degree in 1957.
