Harold Thaxter Libby, 61, for many years general manager and secretary of the former J. R. Libby Company department store here, died Wednesday in his home at St. Augustine, Florida. He had suffered a paralytic stroke two years ago.

Mr. Libby had been an invalid for more than 16 years as the result of critical injuries received September 1, 1929, while playing polo at the former Cape Elizabeth Polo Association field on the estate of Henry St. John Smith. In the course of a practice game among members of the club, Mr. Libby's pony collided with a pony of the opposing team. He was thrown to the ground and the pony, fell upon his body, causing a severe concussion of the brain and other injuries. Following emergency operations he removed to St. Augustine from his home at Loveitt's Heights, South Portland.

His father was one of Portland's foremost merchants and philanthropists for half a century until his death in 1917, and was founder in 1897 of what was for many years Maine's greatest department store, then located in the Baxter Block on Congress, Oak and Free Streets, which was conducted until 1935. The family home was the palatial Morse mansion at the corner of Park and Danforth Streets, now known as the Victoria Mansion. Summer residences were at Limington and Buxton.

He attended the Portland schools and was graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H., then entered the family business.

He was a member of Williston Congregational Church, the Portland Club, the Settlers Club, the Portland Country Club, Kiwanis and all of the Masonic bodies

While attending Phillips Exeter Academy he was much interested in sports, especially baseball

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marion Elwell Libby of St. Augustine, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs.

Walter Elwell of Portland; a brother, Ralph G. Libby of Portland, formerly associated with him in the J. R. Libby Company; three sisters, Mrs. William R. Cutter and Mrs. Merle S. Brown, both of Portland, and Mrs. Arthur R. Chamberlain, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.
