TURNER - Lloyd "Lodie" Libby, 73, a lifelong resident of Turner, passed away Wednesday evening, May 4, at his home, surrounded by his loving family following a courageous battle with cancer.

He was born Nov. 19, 1931, in Turner, the son of Kenneth and Carolyn Hobbs Libby and attended the local schools.

On Dec. 30, 1950, he married the former Patricia Chicoine of Livermore Falls in Winthrop, having celebrated 55 years of marriage this past December.

In 1952, he served in the Korean War as an Army sergeant, fighting on the front lines.

Lodie owned and operated L & L Well Drilling for 28 years, and had been a substitute HCR mail carrier.

He was a dedicated and active citizen for the Town of Turner. He served as deputy fire chief from 1957 until 1961, later becoming its chief for 16 years.

It wasn't just the fire department that benefited from his dedication and time, he served the community in many different ways throughout the years. In 1963, he became the town constable and held this office for 16 years. He also served on the town's Budget Committee from 1975 until 1978, and was the town's governance as a selectman from 1975 until 1977.

For his years of dedication to the Town of Turner, risking his safety for others and for his unselfish efforts in keeping the volunteer fire department a part of this community, his friends and neighbors dedicated the Town Report for April of 2005 to him.

He was a former member of the Nezinscot Masonic Lodge No. 101 of Turner.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and going to the camp in Madrid with his close buddy, Roz Hamilton. He also

Norman H. Libby

Bridgton, Aug. 17.—Norman H. Libby, 76, a native of this town, died Tuesday night in a Portland nursing home where he had lived for the past two years. He wrote a history of this town two years ago for the archives of the Maine Historical Society, of which he was a member.

He was born Feb. 7, 1873, son of the late Horace B. and Lucy B. Libby, and sold insurance here and was, for a time, correspondent for a Boston newspaper.

He was a member of the Universalist Church and a past master of the Blue Lodge here. Mr. Libby held the 50-year Masonic medal, and was a member of Oriental Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, a charter member of Oriental Commandery, and a founder and president of the public library. He served on the board of the Bell Hill Meeting-house and the board of the local hospital.

An active sportsman in his youth, Mr. Libby was one of the first here to ski across the White Mountains. He once saved a man's life on Mount Washington by skiing to his rescue.

He is survived by a nephew, Roger Hill, of Union, N. J., and a niece, Mrs. Gladys Madenford, Philadelphia, Pa.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Saturday from the Potter funeral home here. Interment will be in a local cemetery.
