Gulbert Little, 93, died Tuesday at a Bangor hospital. His wife, Helen, 92, died Wednesday, 12 hours after her husband, at a Bangor health care center.

The couple, both Portland natives, were married for 63 years and were extremely close, said Lillian Little, their daughter-in-law.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and left a mark in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

by train, Lillian Little said.

Mr. Little was an accomplished carpenter, building furniture for himself and his children, she said.

"He used to go around and tell the children, 'Well, it's your turn now, what would you like?'" Lillian Little said. "He had an engineering degree from the University of Maine and was quite adept at picking things up. He could just look at a book, a picture, and build it."

Among the items he built were a grandfather clock, a hope chest, a double desk for

After Mr. Little died at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday, family members went to tell

Mrs. Little. When they arrived at her nursing home, she had slipped into a coma, Lillian Little said. She died at 4:30 the next morning.

Mr. Little was a banker, retiring from Canal National Bank as a vice president in 1966.

Mrs. Little was a teacher before her marriage.

After he retired, the two traveled together, taking cruises in the Caribbean and several trips across the country

Gulbert Little and Helen Little's two sons and the couple's own bedroom set, she said.

"He really liked people and he particularly liked children," she said. Mrs. Little was quieter, she added, but had interests of her own, such as serving as a sponsor of the Deering High School band for a number of years.

In going through the couple's papers, family members found that "they saved everything," Lillian Little said.

"She has bills from when she had the house painted back in the '40s and '50s, and she has her mother's certification to teach from way back in the 1890s," she said.

The couple lived in Hermon with their son, Raymond M. Little, and daughter-in-law for the past three years, Lillian Little said.

In February, Mrs. Little had to be moved to a nursing home and "it hit (Mr. Little) pretty hard. He was very lonesome. He would go up there three days a week on a regular schedule to see his wife.

"He always said that he didn't mind dying, but he wanted to live longer than she did so he knew she was well cared for," Lillian Little said. Although Mr. Little didn't outlive his wife, he made sure she was cared for, she added.

Mr. Little was born in Portland, son of Everett O. and Lena Gilbert Little. He graduated from Deering High School, the University of Maine (1926) and Rutgers Graduate School of Banking (1953).

On Sept. 1, 1926, he married Helen Hamm.

He was a lieutenant colonel in the Army during World War II with the 1st Tank Destroyer Group. He received seven battle stars and was decorated by the United States and Belgium. He was a member of the Army Reserve until 1960.

He was a Mason and a member of the National Sojourners, the Military Order of World Wars, the Retired Officers Association and the Woodfords Club.

Mrs. Little was born in Portland, a daughter of George A. and Eva Clark Hamm. She was a graduate of Deering High School and Bates College.

Mrs. Little taught school in Connecticut before her marriage.

She was president of the Maine Home for Boys, the College Club of Portland, the Women's Literary Union and the Fox Club.

Surviving are a son, Raymond M. of Hermon; two daughters, Betty L. Stocks of Cape Elizabeth and Nancy C. Ready of Cincinnati; 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

In addition, Mr. Little is survived by two brothers, Elmer R. and Elton S., both of Falmouth. Mrs. Little is also survived by a sister, Ethel Hamm of Portland.

A memorial service for Mr. and Mrs. Little will be held

Little Sr., 91

CALAIS -- Malcolm LeRoy Little Sr., 91, died peacefully at his home on July 15, 2007, surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Pembroke, Aug. 31, 1915, the son of LeRoy and Mila (Carter) Little. Malcolm graduated from Pembroke High School class of 1932.

Following high school, he played on many local baseball teams and even went on to play semi-professional baseball for a Red Sox minor league team. His love and ability in baseball gave him the honor to play in Fenway Park. He spoke fondly of the chance he got to catch for Dizzy Dean. From his memorable experiences he was a life long Red Sox fan.

At the age of 19 he began his working career at the Civilian Conservation Corps. He then went on to work for the Maine Baking Company. He was one of the only surviving members of the Railway Mail serving from 1946-1959.

He went on to work for the U.S. Postal Service from 1959 until his retirement in Portland in 1973. He was an active member in many organizations including The Masons, Odd-Fellows, American Legion, and served as selectman for the town of Pembroke. He will always be remembered as a fair and kind man with a dry wit. He enjoyed watching his children and grandchildren play all their sporting activities. He was always an avid fan of horse racing.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by two brothers, Rudolph and Reginald Andrews; and two sisters, Leona Grant and Marguerite (Tarbell) Mitchell. WINTERPORT — Thurlow Armand Little, 82, husband of Mildred (Patterson) Little, died Aug. 14, 1995, at a Bangor hospital after a brief illness. He was born in Woodland, July 24, 1913, the son of Armand and Lura (Twombly) Little. Thurlow was a carpenter, cabinet-maker and an accomplished millwright. He was a perfectionist at everything he did. This trait was evident in the restoration of his pride and joy, a 1958 CrisCraft wooden boat, and the stone wall and other stone work that he did at his Winterport home. As much as being a perfectionist, Thurlow enjoyed his independence and was always thinking of ways that would allow him to do his work better and without having to bother anyone for help. He truly admired and appreciated the beauty in quality workmanship. During his working career he was a union millwright for several area construction companies. Thurlow had lived in Winterport for many years and was a member of Howard Masonic Lodge No. 69 of Winterport. Surviving are his wife of 57 years, Mildred of Winterport; two sons and daughters-in-law, Armand L. and Elaine Little of Hampton, Va., and Michael B. and Josephine Little of Westbrook; one daughter and son-in-law, Patricia M. and Larry Malkevich of Colorado Springs, Colo.; one sister, Hazel and her husband, Orman Hunt of Skowhegan; six grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a sister, Geraldine Richie. Friends may call 6-8 p.m. Thursday at the Hampden Funeral Home, 45 Western Ave., Hampden. A funeral service will be held 3 p.m. Friday at the Winterport United Methodist Church with the Rev. Elthea B. Knight, pastor, officiating. Interment will be private. Gestures of remembrance may be made to the Winterport United Methodist Church, care of Sue Fraser, 412 Lebanon Rd., Winterport 04496.

David R. Littlefield, 77, a railroad enthusiast who enjoyed collecting hats, died Thursday at his home at 71 Lincoln St.

"I remember as a child he used to have railroad tracks all over the house. He used to put them on a big board.

PASSAGES

Each week the Telegram selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

He was always playing with them and riding them," said his daughter, Cheryl L. Hodgdon of Buxton.

In addition, he enjoyed railroad excursions, including trips to Mount Washington, where he rode on the Cog Railway.

Mr. Littlefield also collected hats, a hobby that helped earn him the nickname "Jolly Pierre."

While running a concession stand for the Firettes Drum and Bugle Corps in South

Portland, "he had this thing where he liked to wear different hats. One of them was a beret, so they called him Jolly Pierre," his daughter said.

Other hats in Mr. Littlefield's collection included a black-and-white-striped railroad cap and a hat with a sea gull on it.

Mr. Littlefield also enjoyed woodworking and his pet cockatiel.

"He used to make all kinds of wooden things for us: shelves, book racks, windmills," his daughter said. "It was just another dabbling thing. He'd go downstairs and he'd just start building things."

"His other hobby was his bird. He had a cockatiel named Tippy," she said. "That bird, he talked up a storm. It was just one-on-one with just him and the bird and it made such a difference in his life."

He also enjoyed driving a bus and working at the concession stand for the Drum & Bugle Corps.

Mr. Littlefield was employed at Oakhurst Dairy for 35 years as a route salesman until he began to suffer from ill health. He later worked as a security guard for Publicover Security at Canal Bank Plaza.

He was a member of the Masons and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Railroad Enthusiast Club.

Mr. Littlefield was born in Portland, a son of Maurice and Florence Knight Littlefield. He attended South Portland schools, graduating from South Portland High School with the class of 1934.

He served in the Army during World War II.

Besides his wife of 56 years, Virginia B. Cash Littlefield of Portland, and his daughter, Cheryl, he is survived by four other daughters, Mrs. William (Sandra M.) Blowers of Portland, Donna L. Penney of Portland, Mrs. Larry (Beverly J.) McCombs of Saco and Mrs. Robert (Terri L.) Driscoll of Westbrook; a sister, Mrs. Richard (Sara) Westberry of Steep Falls; a brother, Forrest Littlefield of New Gloucester; 18 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be conducted by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Highland Memorial Gardens, Highland Avenue, South Portland. Arrangements are by Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, 199 Woodford St.

cial)—Edwin Ivory Littlefield, 72, York County deputy sheriff and court crier and a former State Senator, died this morning at the Goodall Memorial Hospital in Sanford where he was taken Monday after having suffered a heart attack in Alfred.

Mr. Littlefield was taken ill while inspecting one of his woodlots. He managed to reach his automobile and drive a few miles to the home of Dr. Carl E. Richards who later took him to the hospital.

Mr. Littlefield was one of Kennebunk's leading citizens and its largest property owner. He was born in West Kennebunk, the son of Ivory and Emma Thing Littlefield. He was educated in the public schools of this town and for many years was engaged in the cattle business. In more recent years he had turned his attention to farming and lumbering, being the owner of numerous woodlots in this area.

Politically, Mr. Littlefield was a Republican and many times boasted that there had never been a Democrat in the Littlefield family. In 1923 he was elected State Representative and followed this with two re-elections. Later he served two terms as State Senator.

In his home town, he took prominent part in political and civic activities. He was a constable for 25 years and a member of the board of health for many years.

He served both the town and York County Republican committees, a former member of the Kennebunk Electric Light Commission, and at the time of his death was president of the Kennebunk and Kennebunkport and Wells Water District.

He had been a deputy sheriff for several years and was named crier of the York County court two years ago. Mr. Littlefield was prominent in Masonic orders, being a member of the York Lodge, F. and A. M., of Kennebunk and St. Armand Commandery, Knights Templar. He was also a Granger. He is survived by his widow, Ethel; a daughter, Nancy who attends college in Virginia; and a son by a former marriage, Trueman Littlefield of Kennebunk.

ing in 1940 from the Sanford High School.

Following graduation Mr. Littlefield began working at Gendron Lumber, which today is known as Hancock Lumber. He was employed by the lumber company for over 60 years and saw many changes there. During World War II he delivered lumber to Boston to help the war effort.
