Capt. Charles H. Littlejohn

Captain Charles H. Littlejohn died Sunday afternoon at his home at 45 Willard Street, South Portland, following an accident which occurred at his home when he fell from a ladder about four weeks ago. As a result of the fall Capt. Littlejohn broke several bones in his body and was taken to the State Street Hospital.

Even though his condition did not warrant his removal to his home, Capt. Littlejohn was anxious to be taken home and his wish was granted.

Capt. Littlejohn was born in South Portland 69 years ago and had always made his home there although much of his life was passed at sea. He was a master of sailing vessels for 30 years and was in the employ of the Sargent, Lord and Skillings Company of this City much of that time. He was master of the Shipping Board steamers during the World War.

About two years ago Capt. Willard gave up sea going and at that time he was captain of the schooner C. J. Willard. He opened a grocery store at 45 Willard Street and had been as successful in his work on the land as he had at sea.

He was a members of several Masonic organization, Elizabeth City Lodge, I. O. O. F., Bayard Lodge, K. of P., and the Neptune Association of Masters and Mates.

His surviving relatives are his wife, Harriet L. Littlejohn; a son, Earl Littlejohn of this City; a sister, Mrs. Rosamond Boyd of South Portland; and three brothers, Jeremiah, William and Vernon, all of South Portland.

Charles Locke, 65, retired publisher, of Delano Park, Cape Elizabeth, member of the David R. Locke family of Toledo, former owners of the Toledo Blade, died at his home late Monday evening after an illness of more than a year.

Mr. Locke, who came to Maine 30 years ago, was long identified with Masonic activities and particularly the De Molay, having founded the chapter at Dover-Foxcroft, where he resided several years. He lived in Portland a number of years and five years ago moved to Delano Park.

With his two brothers and father, he was connected with the Ohio newspaper until his retirement with the sale of the paper in 1926. He was a member of the Portland Club and attended St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. He belonged to Kora Shrine and various other Masonic bodies, as well as to the Knights of Pythias.

Besides his widow, Edna M. Locke of Delano Park, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James A. Murray of Newton Center, Mass., and two nieces and nephews on the Pacific Coast.

William Locke

William Locke, former traveling freight agent, died on May 28, 1938, at the age of 78. He had retired in March 1932, with a service record of more than 50 years. He first entered the employ of the Maine Central Railroad in 1881 as a station agent at Fryeburg, his home town. He came to Portland in 1890 as clerk in the freight traffic department and up to the time of his retirement had held various positions including traveling agent, special agent, superintendent heater car service, and traveling freight agent. He was well liked and had an exceptionally wide acquaintance all over the Maine Central system.

Funeral services were held in the Congregational Church in Fryeburg May 31 and burial was in the family lot in that town under Masonic auspices. A delegation from the Maine Central general offices in Portland attended in a body.
