HERBERT ROGER LONDON

No. 4677 Noble Herbert Roger London of Houlton was born on August 17, 1920 in Hodgdon and died on October 29, 2002, after a courageous struggle with Parkinson's disease.

As a youth he helped his mother with farm chores and tended the schoolhouse fire. As a teen he went to work at Barry and Benn. Enlisting during World War II as a Navy Seabee, he served in the D-Day invasion of Normandy. Upon his return from the war in 1945, he began his first auto service business. He was a respected businessman and a fine mechanic. He owned and operated London Service Station, at the Houlton rotary, beginning in 1953. In 1956, he started London Motors, which he owned and operated for more than 20 years. After retiring from the automobile business, he worked briefly at the Houlton Border Patrol. Committed to community service, he served on the Houlton Town council for 16 years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Houlton and served as usher, head usher, trustee, and as a member of the Building and Grounds Committee. He was a past member of the Elks. He was a man of integrity and honor. He was serious about his responsibilities to family, church and his profession, yet he was loved for his dry sense of humor, his classic one-liners, and little poems. He enjoyed music, poetry, dancing, nature-rides and fishing. In his own words, he had a lifelong "love affair" with the automobile.

His Masonic affiliations included lifelong member and past master of Monument Lodge No. 96 AF & AM. He was a member of the York and Scottish Rite Bodies. His membership in Anah Shriners was recorded as June 19, 1954.
