Hollis Haynes Madden of Milford, died Monday morning at his home on Davenport Street, after an illness of five months. Born in Greenfield 61 years ago, Mr. Madden was the son of the late Stephen Decatur Madden and Mary E. (Fogg) Madden.

A widely-known lumberman, his interest in that industry dated from his early employment with the Katahdin Pulp and Paper Co. and the Lincoln Pulpwood Co., both of Lincoln, during which he acquired his first knowledge of the business, in which he developed so great an interest that it later became his life work.

In 1937, he assumed the duties of the position of superintendent with E. P. Draper, in which he remained till 1921. He then engaged in business for himself buying pulpwood for the Eastern Manufacturing Co. in Brewer, and the Penobscot Chemical Fibre Co. in Great Works, in which he afterwards continued.

The owner and operator of a saw-mill in Greenfield, he was also engaged in the manufacture of long lumber.

Another activity in which he was interested was the handling of timberlands and other real estate.

Fraternity, he was a thirty-second degree Mason, locally affiliated with Star in the East Lodge, No. 60, F. and A. M., and Old Town Chapter, RAC, No. 68. He was also a member of Anoh Temple, Mystic Shrine, in Bangor, as well as of Tarratine Lodge, No. 27, IOOF, Old Town.

Since becoming a permanent resident of Milford in 1926, the improvement and adornment of his pleasant home have ranked not second to the affairs of his business, and he has devoted more or less time to community activities. He had completed his second term as a member of the board of selectmen.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Mynete A. Madden, he is survived by three brothers and a sister: Winfield S. and W. Eugene Madden of Milford, Harry F. Madden and Mrs. Lucinda Simmons, both of Greenfield. He leaves, also, a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at his late home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Remarks

Born 1-30-1953

SOUTH PORTLAND - Roydon K. Maddocks, 85, a longtime Lucas Tree employee, died Wednesday at a local hospital.

He was born in Carlton, Ky., a son of Warren and Alice MacDonald Maddocks, and attended Portland schools.

Mr. Maddocks worked longer than 60 years for Lucas, retiring in 1988. He began employment with the original owner, Jack Lucas, whom he had a great deal of respect for, and was Lucas's superintendent of trees for many years.

He worked closely with Central Maine Power Co., overseeing the trimming and pruning trees along streets and power lines. He retired from the firm at least three times, but always returned part-time. The last position he held was as an errand man. He finally retired two years ago, when he could no longer pass his driver's license examination.

Until recently he had been a superintendent of trees for the town of Cape Elizabeth, a sort of honorary position in which he would provide consultation on individual trees for town citizens.

He worked on several underground cable projects in Casco Bay during World War II.

He was a past exalted ruler of the Portland Lodge of Elks. When he stopped attending meetings about three years ago, he was the oldest living active past exalted ruler. He was a member of the Deering Lodge of Masons and was the first president of the Maine Arborists Association.

Mr. Maddocks was a founding member of Little League Baseball in Portland. He was a co-founder of Portland Little League One in 1951, and a league official for many years. League One's original field was at Thompson's Point.

He contributed greatly to statewide Little League activities and received a Governor's Award in 1967 from Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis for "giving unstintingly of time and professional talents to the regional and state organizations." He retired from LL One in the same year.

He is survived by his wife, Myrtle Woodrow Maddocks of South Portland; a daughter, Joan E. DeRice of Portland; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A service will be held at 2 p.m. Friday in Chapel A of the Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, Portland. Burial will follow in Brooklawn Memorial Park, Portland.
