Charles Levi Marston, 96, Yarmouth's oldest resident and its last surviving member of the GAR, died this morning at his home on Main Street.

Born at North Yarmouth, May 21, 1846, son of the late Captain Levi and Lavina Mitchell Marston, he spent his youth in that town and was graduated from North Yarmouth Academy.

He had entered Kents Hill Seminary when he enlisted in the Army in the Civil War. He became a sergeant in the First Maine Cavalry, seeing service in Virginia and North Carolina.

Returning from the war, he resumed his studies at Kents Hill and in 1866 went to Boston, where he was an accountant for 15 years. He married Miss Elizabeth Drummond of Phippsburg in 1870 and they resided in Newton, Mass., for some time.

They returned to Yarmouth 60 years ago. Mrs. Marston died in 1936.

Mr. Marston became connected with the Northern Banking Company of Portland upon his return to Maine and later became an accountant for J. B. Brown & Sons, retiring a few years ago.

He was a member of Casco Lodge F. & A. M., and holder of the 50-year medal of that lodge, a member of Portland Commandery, Knights Templar of Portland and of Cumberland Royal Arch Chapter of Yarmouth.

He was for over 50 years a member of the board of trustees of North Yarmouth Academy and a deacon in the First Parish Congregational Church.

He had a fine baritone voice in his younger years, was a member of the Chapman Festival from its beginning and sang in choirs in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

He was the last survivor of the W. L. Haskell Post, GAR, and on Memorial Day, 1940, was one of the five Civil War veterans to take part in a New York City parade.

Surviving are a daughter, Miss Mabel C. Marston; a son, James D. Marston and a grandson, Charles D. Marston, all of Yarmouth; and a brother, George H. Marston of Cambridge, Mass., who is 93.

longtime teacher, coach; Scout leader

WESTBROOK — Leslie P. "Red" Marston, 94, a longtime teacher, Boy Scout leader and marine patrol warden, of Emery Street, died Sunday at a local health-care facility following a long illness.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

In 1921, after graduating from high school at Lincoln Academy, New-castle, Mr. Marston moved to Portland to live with an aunt and landed a job at a lumber company on the Portland waterfront.

In 1924, he joined the Army's 5th Infantry, Company B, and was stationed at Fort McKinley on Great Diamond Island in Casco Bay.

While in the service, he excelled as a basketball player and in 1926 his team won many honors, including the state championship. He rose to the rank of lieutenant before his discharge from the Army in 1927.

In 1928 he married the former Grace Dutton and they were married for 62 years until she died in 1990.

Leslie Marston

Mr. Marston graduated from the former Gorham Normal School and he taught and coached for several years in Old Orchard Beach and Westbrook. When the new Westbrook Junior High School opened in 1953, he transferred there and taught mathematics until he retired in 1960.

Mr. Marston enjoyed hunting, fishing and photography all his life. However, his main hobby was always working with children.

He was a Boy Scout leader for many years, and every year he took youngsters camping and hiking at Moose-head Lake and Mount Katahdin, often at his own expense. For his many years of volunteer work, he was honored with the Boy Scouts' prestigious Silver Beaver Award.

Mr. Marston enjoyed spending summers at his camp on Sebago Lake, and for many years he was a state warden during the summer months, with the job of patrolling Sebago Lake by boat.

He was instrumental in starting the Westbrook Senior Citizens group.

He was a member of Temple Lodge of Masons and a longtime member of the Westbrook United Methodist Church. He was a member of the National, Maine and Westbrook teachers associations as well as the Westbrook Retired Teachers Association.

He was a member of the former Westbrook teachers bowling league and was adviser to the school's outdoor and rifle clubs.

Born in South Paris, a son of William P. and Elizabeth Newell Marston, he attended South Paris schools and Goodwill Farm in Hincidley. In 1918 he moved to Natick, Mass., to live with his father and to attend Natick High School, where he excelled in baseball, basketball, football and track. In 1920 he moved to Damariscotta to live with his grandfather and finished high school at Lincoln Academy.

Surviving is a cousin, John Marston of Opposon, Va.

There will be no visiting hours. The time and date of a funeral service will be announced by Hay Funeral Home, 795 Main St.
