Remarks

The untimely death of Charles H. Mathews of Cherryfield brings sorrow, not alone to his family but to all who knew him. Born in Cherryfield, Feb. 19, 1873, he was educated in the public schools and was graduated with honor from Cherryfield Academy.

His early life was spent in Columbia Falls, where he met and married his wife, Agnes Young. He was a pioneer in the pulp wood business and was always successful, due to his integrity and business acumen. Although busy with his many activities, including the management of a retail store, he found time to serve the community as selectman and assessor.

After the death of his brother, Albert M. Mathews, he returned to his native town, purchased the store, dwelling and business and has successfully carried on his business there, giving his personal attention to details until a few days before his death.

He was much interested in the schools, serving as school committeeman for a number of years.

He was a member of Narraguagus Lodge, F. and A. M., and Winneipurkit Lodge, K. of P., exemplifying in his life and business the tenets of these orders.

He never turned a deaf ear to anyone applying for relief, but gave generously of his time and liberally of his means for any worthy object. About 10 years ago he was elected representative to the Maine Legislature from the class towns including Cherryfield, Beddington, Deblois, Milbridge and Steuben. An ardent Democrat, he was faithful to his party and to the principles for which his party stood, nevertheless he was always fairminded, true to his convictions, and loyal to his friends.

He leaves to mourn his loss Agnes Mathews, his widow; and five children, Lillian Newland, New York; Edna Mathews, a teacher in New York; Mona Lamreaux, Cherryfield; Blanche Sawyer, Cherryfield; and Charles, Jr., a student in Cherryfield Academy.

Rev. R. B. Matthews Dies At Damariscotta

Damariscotta, Dec. 25—(AP)—The Rev. Rupert B. Matthews, 75, retired rector of Christ (Episcopal) Church, Snow Hill, Md., died in his sleep Friday night at his home here. Mr. Matthews, who also had held Episcopal rectorships in Newark, N. J., and Trappe, Md., left a widow, Louise, and three children by a previous wife, Mrs. Elwood Rowens of Baltimore, F. Goodwin Matthews of North East, Md., and Mrs. Erwart Matthews of North Rochelle, N. Y.

Mr. Matthews was born at Augusta and was a graduate of the Bangor Theological Seminary. While a student there he occupied the pulpit of the Brewer Congregational Church and later held Congregational pastorates at Skowhegan, Newcastle and Ellsworth before he became an Episcopalian.

He was a past master of Alna Lodge of Masons here and of Ligonias Lodge in Ellsworth.

His first wife, who was Miss Jessie Tukey, died several years ago.

The Rt. Rev. Oliver L. Loring, Episcopal Bishop of Maine, will officiate at funeral services for Mr. Matthews in St. Andrew's Church at 11 a. m. Tuesday.

MONTVILLE — Authorities on Tuesday said they launched a criminal investigation in the aftermath of a head-on accident on Route 220 that killed a local man, hurt four teen-agers and involved three cars. 3/6/2001

Maine State Police Trooper Jason Richards said Donald Mathieson, 42, of Montville was killed in the Monday night crash. Three of Mathieson's daughters were in the vehicle with their father and two of them suffered serious injuries.

The accident occurred near the intersection of the Mathieson Road about 7:50 p.m. Monday. The road was clear at the time and snow from the overnight storm had just started falling.

Mathieson was rounding a bend in the highway when he encountered two vehicles coming in the opposite direction. One of the vehicles was in his lane of travel.

Riding with Mathieson were his daughters Ann, 16, Jessie, 12, and Janet, 9. Janet was uninjured but Ann and Jessie were taken to Waldo County General Hospital.

Ann Mathieson suffered contusions to her legs, head lacerations and a fractured orbital bone around the eye.
