Charles L. Maxwell

Ogunquit, May 7—Charles L. Maxwell died at his home May 1. The village suffers the loss of one of its most beloved and influential citizens. Born and raised here, where he had lived all his life, he was a friend in the best sense of the word to young and to old and to the needy always most generous. Mr. Maxwell took great interest in all the village affairs, contributing freely to its betterment and progress. A shrewd business man, of unimpeachable character, his untimely passing can only be keenly felt and his genial smile will also be missed by many summer colonists and hotel guests.

He was a valued member of the Ogunquit Baptist parish and was its treasurer for 32 years; of Ocean Lodge
