Remarks

Robert E. McCausland

Robert Emerson McCausland died Thursday afternoon at his home on City Point Road, Peaks Island, following an illness of two weeks. Mr. McCausland was stricken with a heart attack after it was believed he was recovering.

He was born at Farmingdale but spent his early life at Gardiner where his parents made their home many years. Mr. McCausland had lived in Portland and at Peaks Island for more than 40 years. He had been engaged in the plumbing business and at one time carried on a dairy business. He was interested in horses and at one time conducted a riding school, the only one ever tried on Peaks Island. He was affiliated with the Masons in Portland and at Gardiner.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie Stewart McCausland, also formerly of Gardiner and four sisters, Mrs. Edward Bachelder of Bath, Mrs. Adelbert Cobb of Gardiner, Mrs. William W. Martin of Revere, Mass., and Mrs. John Thompson of Brunswick.

Funeral services and burial will be at Gardiner.

Obituary

Henry T. McClearn

Henry Trefethen McClearn, well known druggist and the treasurer of the Bennett Contracting Corporation, died today at his home, 77 Ocean Avenue.

Mr. McClearn, who was 54 years old, was the son of Edward D. McClearn of South Portland. He was born at Gloucester, Mass., and received his early education in the Portland Public Schools. He was graduated with honors at the New York College of Pharmacy and was a registered druggist in New York, Massachusetts and in Maine. For many years he practiced his profession in this City and at Boothbay Harbor. In 1911 he became treasurer of the Bennett Contracting Corporation, serving in this capacity at the time of his death.

The deceased was also prominent in fraternal circles, being a member of the Blue Lodge of Masons; the Chapter at Boothbay Harbor and the St. Alban Commandery of which he was a Past Commander. Mr. McClearn was a 32nd degree Mason and a Shriner. He was also an active member of the Constantine Red Cross.

Mr. McClearn is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Bennett McClearn, his father, and a sister, Mrs. Mark W. Newcomb of Auburn. Funeral services will be held at 2.30 Monday at his late residence and burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.
