Austin G. McGee

1934-2004

WEST GARDINER — Austin G. McGee, 69, of High Street and Minnehonk Lake in Mount Vernon died on Saturday, July 24, 2004, at his home.

He was born in Gardiner on Aug. 31, 1934, a son of Austin R. and Josephine A. Marson McGee.

Austin was a kind and gentle man with a great sense of humor. He loved animals, especially his 10 cats. He enjoyed reading, music, singing and dancing, his family, the Boston Red Sox, having a good time, roses — having grown over 200 varieties at once — life, and having it his way.

Serving in the Army during the Korean War, he began his working career as a meatcutter for Augusta Provision, which became Jordan's Meats. He and his wife later acquired Chuck's Market in Pittston, the name of which they changed to McGee's Market. After 14 years of ownership, they sold the store. They relocated to Vassalboro, where he was employed at Tobey's General Store for several years. After that, he was employed for a few years at The Market & Deli in South China and for Mister Market, retiring in 1999.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Dawn Drisko McGee of
