Donald E. Meklin

By Burpee, Carpenter & Hutchins Funeral Home, Inc.

CUSHING (Jan 18): Donald E. Meklin, 71, owner of Donald E. Meklin and Sons Excavation, died unexpectedly on Jan. 15, 2008, at Penobscot Bay Medical Center in Rockport.

Born in Ash Point in Owls Head on Oct. 31, 1936, he was the son of Gosta and Elin Karlsson Meklin. Mr. Meklin began his education in Ash Point until moving at an early age with his family to Thomaston. He attended school there, graduating from Thomaston High School in 1955.

Following graduation, Mr. Meklin reconstructed a barn at his family's homestead in Thomaston in order to raise broiler chickens for Penobscot Poultry. For a few years he devoted his time to that business and later purchased his first truck, a 1958 Ford and a backhoe. These were the beginning of what is now Donald E. Meklin and Sons Excavators. With his family helping him, he expanded the business to its present day size. His son said, "We have always worked as a team."

On June 22, 1963, Donald married Judith E. Young in Thomaston. His family said he was always proud that he had only one girlfriend in his lifetime, who became his wife. In 1968 he built his home in Cushing, where with his wife he raised his family and operated the family business.

For more than 40 years, Mr. Meklin was an active member and twice master of the Orient Lodge of Masons #15 in Thomaston. He was a member of the Kora Temple Shrine and the Mid-Coast Shrine Club. He enjoyed family gatherings and outings, which included hunting with his sons in earlier years, cookouts, trips to Kissimmee, Fla., to attend equipment auctions and trips to Las Vegas. He also found great joy in spending time with his grandchildren. Never one to be idle, Mr. Meklin was constantly juggling many projects at once.

For many years he sanded the roads in Cushing during the winter months. His family said he was always willing to help anyone in need, and wanted to be the one to pay whenever he went anywhere with friends or family. They remembered his free hearted nature and generosity.

Mr. Meklin is survived by his wife, Judith E. Meklin; two sons, Eric A. Meklin and his wife, Bridgett, and Bruce G. Meklin and his wife, Shiloh, all of Cushing; two brothers, Gosta "Oke" Meklin and his wife, Susan, of Warren, and Kurt R. Meklin and his wife, Brenda, of Rockland; one sister, Barbara Hooper of Warren; his brother-in-law, Phillip J. Young and his wife, Suzanne, of Cushing; eight grandchildren, Eric M. Meklin, Joshua T.
