Augusta, May 10.—The funeral for Will Campbell Miller, 87, outstanding Odd Fellows official, was conducted Saturday afternoon from his home, 53 Bangor Street. The Rev. Arthur G. Christopher, pastor of Green Street Methodist Church, officiated.

Mr. Miller died Wednesday after a long illness.

A-30-1865

At one time he had the unique distinction of being the only living member of IOOF who had held all the offices including grand master, grand patriarch, department commander and general commanding. For many years he was permanent grand representative from the Grand Encampment in Maine.

Mr. Miller was born at Union Aug. 30, 1865, son of John and Sarah T. Marston Miller. He came to Augusta in 1883 where he had since made his home except for a short period when he was employed in Boston. Mr. Miller was graduated from Dirigo Business College.

For over a half century he was employed as a traveling salesman for plumbing supply companies. On Oct. 1, 1890, he married Annie G. Robbins of Augusta. They had two children, Ruby, who died in infancy and Stanford L. Miller of Augusta. Mrs. Miller died Jan. 9, 1933. His second wife was the former Edith O. Cross of Waterville. She and his son, Stanford, survive him.

Mr. Miller was also a charter member of the Augusta Lodge of Elks; member of Bethlehem Lodge, F&AM; a 32nd degree Mason; member of Kora Temple, Mystic Shrine and a member of Rose of Sharon Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Following the Odd Fellows funeral service, interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery here.
