S. Leroy Moody

S. Leroy Moody, a resident of Portland much of his life when employed by local banking and financial organizations, died suddenly today in his home in Windham Center, where he had resided the past 12 years.

Mr. Moody was born here in March, 1871, and was for several years a clerk in the office of the A. H. Berry Shoe Company, Middle Street. He was later engaged in the men's furnishings business here with Edward P. Sawyer, under the firm name of Sawyer & Moody.

He afterwards entered the employ of the former Fidelity Trust Company, serving as a clerk and then as a teller until the bank was closed during the bank holiday, in March 1933. He was then an accountant and clerk for the Home Owners Loan Corporation, a federal financial organization. Mr. Moody later moved to Windham, where he was engaged in the poultry business with his son, the late Philip A. Moody.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Grace L. Moody of Windham Center, and a brother, Carl D. Moody, a teller of the First Portland National Bank.

Power S. Mooney

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Augusta, June 17—Funeral services for Power S. Mooney, tailor in Augusta for over a half century who died Wednesday, were held at a funeral home here this afternoon with the Rev. H. Mortimer Gesner, pastor of the All Souls Unitarian Church officiating. Bearers were members of Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar.

He is survived by his wife, the former Abbie McCausland, a daughter, Mrs. Neil Van Aken of Hartsdale, New York, several nephews and nieces.

Mr. Mooney learned the tailoring trade in Boston when a young man and went from there to Providence where he was in charge of the Providence branch of the McKellar-Parker Co. He then came to Augusta where he remained in the tailoring business for more than a half century. He was first employed as a cutter for Charles H. Nason and for the last 25 years was in business for himself.

His great-grandfather was the first Presbyterian minister in North America, having the parish at Lunenburg, N. S. Mr. Mooney was a member of the All Souls Unitarian Church in Augusta, was past worshipful master of Bethlehem Lodge, F. and A. M., past high priest of Cushnoc Chapter, RAM, past eminent commander of Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar and an honorary member of the Augusta Rotary Club.

Fond of sports in his younger days, he was the first ice boat owner on Lake Cobbosseecontee.

KITTY POINT — The Rev. George Duncan Moores, 81, of Pepperrell Terrace, husband of Velma Bray Moores, died Sunday at his residence.

Born in Newfoundland, he was the son of Henry Thomas and Maude Moores. He graduated from the Bangor Theological Seminary, class of 1928. He also graduated from Bates College, class of 1932.

The Rev. Moores served as executive secretary of the Boards of Education and Missions for the Maine Methodist Conference in Auburn for 11 years.

In 1961, he was appointed minister of the School Street and North Street Methodist Churches in Gorham. At that time he initiated the program that resulted in construction of the $78,000 education building at the School Street Church. More than 100 new members joined the church, and the parsonage was renovated. In 1964, the Rev. Moores transferred to the South Eliot Methodist Church.

He was a member of the Maine Annual Conference of United Methodist Churches, the Secretary of Advisory Council of Southern Maine Senior Citizens Inc., and the Naval Lodge, AF and AM.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Barry Moores of Hollis and Brian W. Moores of Doswell, Va.;

three brothers, Donald F. Moores of Milford, Mass., John C. Moores of Everett, Mass., and G. Pierson Moores of Manchester, Conn.; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Prince of Saugus, Mass.; and a grandson.

SOUTH PORTLAND — Albert E. Moore of 890 Sawyer St., a real estate agent and avid sailor, died Tuesday at his home of heart failure and cancer. He was 82.

A lifelong racer of sailboats, Mr. Moore was a tough competitor who thrived on winning. He was known for tossing salty directions fast and furiously at his crew.

PASSAGES

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

"At times it could be very hectic," said his daughter, Janice C. Davis of South Portland. "He was never wrong in his life, he would say."

In 1946 Mr. Moore crewed on a boat that placed third in a national championship Lightning-class race, and until late in his life he owned one of the 19-foot Lightnings.

His love of sailing led him to help found the Centerboard Yacht Club in South Portland. He was elected the club's commodore four consecutive years during the 1940s.

Mr. Moore was active in the Hiram Masonic Lodge, winning an award for outstanding service to the lodge in 1967. He was elected master in 1960-61 and was a trustee until his death. He also served as the high priest and secretary.

He started his Moore Real Estate Agency in 1962 and retired in 1972.

His first wife, Muriel Moore, died in 1971. His second wife, Ruth E. Moore, died in 1980.

He is survived by two sisters, Marjory Wheeldon of Portland and Virginia Mason of Inverness, Fla.; a son, Albert E. Jr., and a daughter, Janice C. Davis, both of South Portland; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at Hobbs Funeral Home, 230 Cottage Road. He will be buried at Brooklawn Memorial Park, 2002 Congress St. Portland.

Friends described him as trustworthy and a perfectionist.

"He always covered all of the bases and made sure things were done right," remembered Joseph Unell, a member of the lodge. "He comes from the old school."

Local politics fascinated Mr. Moore, although he never ran for
