OLD TOWN - Michael John Morin, 40, passed away Jan. 8, 2002, as a result of a motor vehicle accident. He was born Jan. 18, 1961, in Bangor, the son of Arthur and Amy (Bouchard) Morin. He was a graduate of Old Town High School, Class of 1979. As an alumnus of the Beta Upsilon Chapter of TKE, Mike was active not only locally as the Alumni Board treasurer and chapter advisor, but internationally as chairman of the TKE Educational Committee, Grand Province Advisor for Northern New England and Arizona, and grand justice for the International Fraternity. Mike was also the recipient of the President's Award, and was inducted into the Knights of Apollo, one of the fraternity's highest alumni honors. Mike was also a member of Mechanic's Lodge No. 66 in Orono. Worshipful Brother Morin was master from 1999-2000. He was active in the York and Scottish Rights as a 32 Degree Mason, as well as the Shrine. He then moved on to the Department of Residential Life, where he worked as a cafeteria supervisor in the Bear's Den. In June of 1989, Mike took on the extra responsibility of Mini-Computer Systems Coordinator for Residential Life. Michael's professional career officially started in September of 1990, when he was reclassified to the professional level as a Microcomputer Specialist. In 1992, he was given the additional task of implementing the installation and management of the university's cable television plant. To quote the Director of professional employees of all UMaine's campuses. Mike assumed the state presidency in January of 1998. Mike encompassed all the virtues one would look for in a leader: integrity, compassion, honesty, fairness, and a sense of humor second to none! Mike was instrumental in building a coalition with other employee unions, specifically ACSUM (clerical staff). His loss will be felt deeply by those who knew and worked with him at the University of Maine. Mike was a member of the National Education Association, Maine Education Association, and a member of the MEA Higher Education Council of Maine. He is survived by his parents of Old Town; his grandparents, Benoit and Agatha Bouchard of Old Town; a sister, Linda Smith and her husband, Michael of Milford; a brother, Kevin Morin and his wife, Beth of Old Town; three nieces, Jeni Cunningham, Kaylie Smith, Hannah Morin; and a nephew, Gabriel Morin. Normand Richard, celebrant. Spring interment will be in St. Joseph Cemetery. Following the Mass, all are welcome to the Holy Family Parish Hall for continued fellowship and refreshments. Per Mike's request, there will be no visiting hours. SOUTH PORTLAND - Benjamin L. Morong, 84, founder and president of the Morong Brothers Inc. dealership, died Monday at a Portland hospital.

Mr. Morong was a founder and part owner of Morong Brothers for 25 years before retiring in 1974. He started the business with his brother, Everett Morong, at

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

Zero Broadway, in a former paint shop of the South Portland shipyards. It was originally a small automobile body shop.

In 1950, Morong Brothers became the first foreign car dealer in Maine. They first sold MG automobiles, and went on to deal in other English cars, including Austins, Triumphs, Bentleys and Rolls-Royces.

"We had Porsches, Sunbeams, Rovers," said Horace K. "Ken" Sowles, Mr. Morong's partner.

"They even sold one called the Riley, and one called the Singer," said his daughter, Rebecca Morong.

"They had a showroom that held two cars, and one service bay out back," said his daughter.

In 1953 Morong Brothers became the first dealer of Volkswagens in Maine.

"The banks took a look at it (the "beetle") and refused to finance us," Mr. Morong said in a 1989 Press Herald interview. "So we bought only five at a time out of our own pocket."

The Volkswagens originally sold for $1,495, according to Sowles - "$1,595 with a sunroof."

By 1955, the beetle's popularity necessitated a move to a larger building at 530 Forest Ave. near Woodfords Corner. In 1963 they moved and expanded again to 887 Forest Ave., near Walton Street. They also operated a Mercedes-Benz dealership for a while, Park Motors in Knightville here.

By 1970 the company was selling more than 1,000 Volkswagens a year and had more than 100 employees.

In 1971 the partners opened a Porsche and Audi dealership on Route 1 in Falmouth, where they later moved the rest of the business.

"He could never get over how successful he had become," said his daughter. "He would just shake his head."

"He was a very hard worker," said Ken Sowles. "A good business manager and a great family man."

Born on Vinalhaven, he was one of 10 children of Fred and Maude Libby Morong. His father was a lighthouse keeper at Matinicus Rock Light. He attended Vinalhaven and Lubec schools and graduated from Rockport High School.

After high school, he was the caretaker for the Donald Dodge estate in Rockport.

Mr. Morong enjoyed woodworking, especially clock-making.

He was a member of the Masons in Rockport and a former member of the Portland Elks.

He lived for more than 30 years at 37 Thompson St. and spent summers for 18 years on Lower Wilson Pond in Greenville.

Surviving are his wife of 61 years, Gertrude E. Noyes Morong of South Portland, two daughters, Barbara Drisko and Rebecca V. Morong, both of South Portland, three brothers, Frederick and Charles, both of Camden, and Everett of Scarborough; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
A funeral will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at Hobbs Funeral Home, 970 Cottage Road, Portland.
