WESTBROOK - Francis Asbury Morrill of Westbrook, passed away on Feb. 18, 2004, at the age of 90.

Francis was born on Nov. 21, 1913 in Biddeford. He was the son of Ferdo and Minetta Morrill.

He was a very devoted husband to his wife, Ruth M. Morrill who passed away in October of 2000. They met while working at Burnham & Morrill and immediately fell in love. They were married for 59 years. After their wedding, Francis joined the Army. He was always very proud of his service to his country, especially his time in the Philippines. Upon his return from the Army, he worked as a cab driver. After a short period of time, he went to work for the A & P Tea Company in Portland where he retired in 1973. He loved his job and the life long friends he made.

Francis was educated in Portland schools. He was predeceased by his brother, Charles Morrill, who died in World War II; his sister, Edna Morrill; his brothers, John Morrill and Ferdo 'Fred' Morrill.

He was extremely proud of his affiliation with the Masonic Lodge, as well as he and Ruth's affiliation with White Shrine and Amaranth. He was volunteering for the Shrine Circus up to 2001 and attended Masonic meetings up to a few month's past. They met many of their lifelong friends while doing the work of these organizations. His faith was very important as well as his relationship with the congregation at Westbrook United Methodist Church.

Other than his immediate and extended family, his other loves were golf, bowling, hunting and Moosehead Lake. He loved his last round of golf this past summer with his friends, Maurice Senechal Dave Gray and his son.

He is survived by his daughter, Barbara Carr-Foley of Westbrook and her children, Shawn Carr of Naples, Scott Carr-Morrill of Portland and Darcy Foley of Raymond; as well as his son, Robert and his wife, Martha of Westbrook and their children. Jessica (Morrill) Sheets of Rhode Island, Julie Morrill and Jaclyn Morrill,
