EDITOR'S NOTE

Each day the Press

Herald selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Southern Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

He attended Shaw's Business College, Portland.

Mr. Murch was awarded the Boston Post Cane as the oldest resident of Raymond five years ago.

As a boy growing up in Raymond, he often transported people in his father's horse-drawn Concord stage coach, which ran between South Casco and South Windham, where passengers could board the electric car to Portland.

When he left Shaw's Business College in 1918, he worked as a bookkeeper at the H.F. Farnham Co.,

Mr. Murch retired from the Cushman Baking Co. in 1953.

He was a 50-year member of the Masons and the Kora Shrine Temple, a director of the Portland Boys Club, a former member of the Woodfords Club and the Portland Club, and the Woodfords Congregational Church.

His first wife, Isabel Brown Murch, died in 1918. His second wife, Doris Strout Murch, died in 1989.

He is survived by three sons, William and Richard, both of Sarasota, Fla., and Lawrence of Raymond; five daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Marjorie) Black of Orr's Island, Mrs. Ronald (Elizabeth) Sawtelle of Englewood, Fla., Mrs. Edwin (Justine) Laberty of Gorham, Mrs. Dolores Stokes of Sarasota, Mrs. George (Gloria) Skenderian of Mount Vernon, N.H.; a brother, George F. of Dunnellon, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. J. Marie Patterson of Westbrook; 24 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held in the spring. Arrangements are by the Hall Funeral Home, Casco.

UNITY — George Henry Murdock IV, 78, of Unity, passed away on Wednesday, Jan. 7, 2004, at a Waterville hospital.

He was born in Medford, Mass., on April 18, 1925, the son of Nina (Spaulding) and George Henry Murdock III.

On March 9, 1943, he entered the Navy, where he learned to love the sea. He served his country during World War II aboard a submarine chaser in the North Atlantic until his ship was hit. He was injured and was honorably discharged on Sept. 8, 1945.

George was a graduate of Tufts University with high honors. He played the saxophone and the clarinet in his own band while in college and met his future wife, Beverly Newell, who also was a saxophone and clarinet player. They married in 1946.

They moved to Maine in 1951 and started a poultry business, raising broilers. They changed to egg farming after a fire to their barn. He developed a successful large market egg business selling to all the major food chains in Maine for 30 years. His label was Nest Fresh Eggs.

At 45 years of age, he returned to college for a master's degree from the University of Maine. He was one of the founders of Unity College and served as chairman of the board for 16 years. He was awarded an honorary doctorate of business from Unity College in 1971. Unity College named a road on campus after him, Murdock Drive, to represent what he had done in the formative years of the college to keep it prospering.

George learned how to fly and bought a twin-engine plane. He earned all available licenses to make him a better pilot. He flew with his family to many places. He loved the sea still foremost. He started sailing and after 10 years he changed to power boating. He took many safe boating courses with the U.S. Power Squadron, and taught many courses as well. He received his Coast Guard captain's license in 1990. He was past commander of the Power Squadron.

He loved and was a member of the Unity Union Church and was very active for many years serving on various committees. He was a 55-year member of the Masons and was a member of the Rotary. George loved God, family, his country, music, boating and traveling. He was always smiling and will be remembered for his sense of humor and quick wit. He will be greatly missed.

George is survived by his wife of 58 years, Beverly (Newell) Murdock, Unity; his children, Steven N. Murdock and his wife, Lucia R., of Annapolis, Md., Wendy Esposito and her husband, Robert, of Unity, Scott S. Murdock and his fiancée, Mary-Jo Neal, of Burnham, and George H. Murdock V and his wife, Holly-Jo, of Newport; his sister, Carol Nicoson and her husband, Ronald, of Florida; seven grandchildren, two step-grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren, all whom he dearly loved.

He was generous, dependable, and a wonderful provider for his family.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 10, at the Unity Union Church, with the Rev. Rick Boyden officiating. Contributions in his memory may be made to the Unity Union Church, P.O. Box 146, Unity, ME 04988.

Arrangements are in the care of Lawry Brothers Memorial and Remembrance Centre, Unity.
