Ralph G. Norton

BIW worker, collected phonograph records

LISBON FALLS - Ralph G. Norton, 69, a materials handler at Bath Iron Works and a collector of old phonograph records, died Friday at the home of his daughter, Raeleene Brown, on Higgins Street.

Mr. Norton lived for many years in Topsham and retired in 1990 after working 30 years at Bath Iron Works.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

For many years, Mr. Norton scoured yard sales and second hand shops to add to his large collection of old phonograph records.

"He had more than 6,000 records," his daughter said. "He kept them in what he called his office. They were all over the place. He was working on sorting and cataloging them."

Mr. Norton added to his collection as recently as this year, his daughter said.

"In fact, he bought a third Victrola (phonograph), so that each of his children could have one."

Mr. Norton also enjoyed watching old movies on television, especially Westerns, and was an amateur genealogist. "He wrote letters and made telephone calls," his daughter said. "He would even clip obituaries that had the Norton name if he thought they might be related."

Another favorite pastime of Mr. Norton's was watching heavyweight wrestling on television. "I would make fun of him," his daughter said. "He'd just chuckle but he'd keep watching."

Born in Freeport, a son of Clyde and Maggie Smith Norton, he graduated from North Yarmouth Academy.

He was a member of the United Lodge of Masons and a past worthy patron of Hawthorne Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. He was a member of the Grange and a former representative for Modern Woodman. He also was a member of the United Baptist Church in Topsham.

Surviving are his daughter of Lisbon Falls; two sons, Ronald A. Norton of Harpswell and Ross Norton of Westport; three sisters, Gladys Dupont of North Yarmouth, Josephine Malm of Westbrook, and Winnie Stasinowski of Pownal; two brothers, Leroy Norton and Maurice, both of Florida; and five granddaughters.

Visiting hours will be from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Brackett Funeral Home, 29 Federal St., Brunswick. A funeral service will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home with the Rev. Ronald McLaughlin officiating. Burial will be in Rogers Cemetery, Topsham later in the spring.
