SKOWHEGAN, Oct. 29. (Special)—Walter P. Ordway, 81, for 50 years one of Maine's prominent dry goods merchants, and a past grand commander of the grand commandery of Maine, Knights Templar, died this morning at Redington Memorial Hospital.

Retiring from active merchandizing in April, 1937, he continued active in the management of business properties, up to illness starting in September.

Mr. Ordway was born at Lawrence, Mass., and came with his family to Skowhegan about 1864. He was graduated from Skowhegan High School in 1881.

After several years as clerk, Mr. Ordway started his dry goods business, buying the store on Water Street in 1887.

Later he built a large block two doors west of his original location and in 1895 moved his business there.

Mr. Ordway was known widely for poenas, secrecy and specula-

PORTLAND-- Anthony Tony Orfaly died peacefully at the age of 86 on July 10, 2006, with his family at his side. He was born in Aleppo, Syria on July 21, 1919, the son of Simon and Turfanda (Guisipian) Orfaly. The family came to the United States as refugees escaping from Turkish attacks on Armenians in 1923. They left Pirarus, Greece and entered through Ellis Island on the ship King Alexander.

His family settled in Chelsea, Mass. His family spoke Armenian, Turkish, Arabic and Greek and his father would write letters for friends and then translate when friends received letters from the old country.

When friends would talk about nationality, he always liked to joke that he was born in Syria, spoke Turkish, and came to the United States on a Greek ship with French passport. He attended the schools in Chelsea through high school, being the only sibling to graduate from high school at the age of 16.

Prior to World War II, he worked in the Charleston and South Boston Navy Yards. Shortly after the Pearl Harbor attack, he joined the Navy.

He served aboard the carrier USS Bunker Hill CV 17. He chose that ship because he was a member of the Bunker Hill Boy's Club. He was the leading Petty Officer 1st Class of the V.A. Division working on all weapons, bombs, and aircraft aboard ship. He survived an attack when the carrier sustained two Japanese Kamikaze plane attacks in less than one minute. The Kamikaze planes and bombs aboard ship sparked a raging inferno on the flight and hanger deck and Tony was one of only two men that escaped the compartment in which he was working. He was fond of saying that God saved him to come home and find his beloved wife, Josephine. The Bunker Hill was one of the most decorated carriers serving in the Pacific and was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation.

He took a voluntary discharge in December 1946 and went back to work in the Gulf and Western was his next career move, working in the reproduction of prints and graphic arts. Gulf and Western closed its local office in 1973, so Tony then went to work for the Navy at the Naval Reserve Center on Commercial Street. He really enjoyed making many Navy friends and getting his new friends involved in bowling and golf. After retirement in 1984, he worked part-time with Pezrow Food Brokers servicing local supermarkets. This job was one of his favorites since it gave him an opportunity to talk with lots of new people and get paid for it.

He belonged to the Masonic fraternity for 50 years. This membership was immensely important to him and he gave much of himself to these various orders. He was a member of all York Rite bodies and held the highest office in all four. He was also a member of Scottish Rite, Valley of Portland, Kora Shrine, and holder of Knight Cross of Honor, a Past Officer of Grand Chapter, and a Past Grand Representative. He was a past Patron in the Order of Eastern Star and a member of North Deering Congregational Church.

His other passion besides family was bowling. He was quite involved in the Greater Portland Ten Pin Bowling Association, being a charter member and past chairman. He has bowled continuously since the leagues were organized in 1958, stopping only in early 2006. He bowled in the Senior Forever Young league where the motto is winning never grows old. He also golfed often at the Riverside South Course.

Surviving is his wife, Josephine A. (Russell) Orfaly; two daughters, Laurie Kazilionis of Portland and Mary Stemm of Odessa, Fla. He is also survived by four grandchildren whom he adored and who adored him, Danielle Kazilionis, Mark Kazilionis, Dayna Kazilionis and Lauren Stemm. He always said that those children made his twilight years spectacular and that they were the lights of his life.

Visiting hours will be held from 4-7 p.m. on Friday, July 14, at Jones, Rich & Hutchins Funeral Home, 199 Woodford St. Portland. A celebration of Tony's life will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 15, at North Deering Congregational Church, 1364 Washington Ave., Portland. Interment with military honors will immediately follow at Forest City Cemetery in South Portland.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Tony's memory to your favorite charity.

Those who wish to send a memorial tribute may do so at www.mem.com.

Fairfield

FAIRFIELD — Elwood N. Osborne, 99, of Fairfield, died Thursday, Sept. 26, 2002, at his home following a long illness.

He was born Sept. 5, 1903, in Fairfield, son of William N. and Bertha (Hodges) Osborne, and lived most of his life at the old family homestead where his great-grandparents settled in about 1786. He attended Fairfield schools and graduated from Lawrence High School in 1921. He graduated from the University of Maine at Orono in 1925 and completed graduate studies at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Tennessee.

After graduating from the University of Maine, he lived for 26 years in the Pittsburg, Pa., area, where he worked first for a consulting engineering firm, then as a construction inspector for the U.S. government. Later, he went to work for Alcoa at the company's headquarters in Pittsburg, where he became a member of the executive staff.

He was a former registered professional engineer in Pennsylvania and Maine, a notary public, dedimus justice, and licensed real estate broker.

He belonged to Siloam Lodge No. 92 of the Masonic Order and was a charter member of the Fairfield Historical Society, as well as a former director of the Good Will-Hinckley School.

In 1951, he returned to Maine to run the family farm and spring water business. The following year, he was elected to the Maine State Legislature as a representative for Fairfield, Smithfield and Mercer. He served two terms in the Legislature, then several years later served six years on the Fairfield Town Council and twice as the town's acting town manager.

In 1953, he joined Central

Maine Power Co., where he became a tax engineer in charge of the company's municipal and state property taxes. He remained with the company until his retirement in 1968. Later, he was appointed by two Governors to the State of Maine Board of Assessment Review.

He was awarded the "Bulldog Award" as an outstanding alumnus of Lawrence High School in 1976 and served as Parade Marshall for Fairfield's Bi-Centennial Celebration in 1988.

Survivors include his children, Charlotte Sadler and husband, Daniel, of St. George, Utah; Timothy Osborne and wife, Carol Tranfaglia, of Woodinville, Wash., and Lydia Howes and husband, Eric, of Auburn; seven grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren; two nieces and two nephews.

He was predeceased by his first wife, Sarah (Hoskinson) Osborne, grandson, Donald C. Sadler, sister, Ruth I. Munnoch, second wife, Estherann (Rollins) Osborne, and daughter, Eleanor A. Ward.

Visiting hours will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 29 at Lawry Brothers Funeral Home, 107 Main St., Fairfield. A funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 30, at Fairfield United Methodist Church, Route 201, Fairfield. In lieu of flowers, it is suggested that donations may be made to Fairfield Historical Society, 42 High St., Fairfield ME 04937; or Good Will-Hinckley School, PO Box 159, Hinckley ME 04944.

EVERETT L. OSBORN

PRESQUE ISLE - Everett L. Osborn, 85, passed away Oct. 17, 2001, at his home after a long illness.

Everett was born in Dodge Center, Minn., Oct. 9, 1916, the third son of George and Anna Mae (Lent) Osborn.

He served in the U.S. Army Corp during World War II as a flight engineer engaged in ferrying bombers from the U.S. to airbases in England, Africa, and India, with returning flights carrying wounded soldiers back to the states. He later helped create a flight engineer school at the Manchester, N.H. airbase until the war ended in Europe. Everett attended engineering school in New Hampshire and graduated from the Aroostook Business School in Presque Isle. Due to his entrepreneurial spirit he was involved with several businesses in this area, but his major concerns were Osborn Ford Sales and Aroostook Film Transport. He was a member of the Presque Isle Congregational Church where he served as treasurer for many years. His fraternal organizations included Trinity Lodge No. 130 AF & AM and Anah Temple Shrine where he served with the Jesters. Things that gave him great joy were; flying, golfing, traveling, adult ed, classes, helping his brother-in-law during harvest, spending time with his family and friends at their camp at Portage Lake, or those special trips with the "Sportsmen". Everett also served as a representative to the Maine State Legislature in the early 1960's and had been a member and past treasurer of the Presque Isle Country Club.

Surviving him is his wife of 58 years, Mildred (Sutter) Osborn of Presque Isle; a son, Michael and his wife, Terri Jo Osborn of Needham, Mass.; a daughter, Barbara and her husband, Raymond DeGrass of Rockport; grandchildren, Benjamin, Eric, and Katherine DeGrass, and Paige Osborn; special in-laws, Philip Sutter and Evelyn Osborn. Predeceasing him were five brothers, Delos, Richard, Ross, Earl, and James; and a sister, Ann Osborn.

There will be no calling hours. Memorial services will be conducted 11 a.m. Saturday, at the Presque Isle Congregational Church, 29 Church St., with the Rev. Robert Grave-Markwood officiating. Those who wish may make donations in his memory to either the American Heart Assoc., Maine Affiliate, Inc. P.O. Box 346, Augusta ME 04330; the Presque Isle Congregational Church, or to the charity of your choice. Arrangements are in the care of Duncan-Graves Funeral Home, Presque Isle.
