Robert A. Owen

pursued variety in work, enjoyed family

BRUNSWICK — Robert A. Owen, 85, of Woodside Road died Sunday at his home.

During his life he was a farmer, served in the Navy, ran a taxi business and worked in road construction, among other occupations.

"He liked to do everything," said a daughter, Mary Ellen Owen of Brunswick, "and he did in his life."

Mr. Owen was born here, a son of Howard W. and Susie Moody Owen, and attended local schools.

In his youth he worked on local farms, including Granite Farm and the Charles Morse Farm. He liked the work, primarily at dairy farms and taking care of horses.

"He loved animals and being outside," his daughter said.

At age 17, he harvested the largest virgin pine tree in the state with his own team of horses, his family said.

He later worked in mines in the area. Before World War II, he worked at Bath Iron Works.

From 1943 until 1946, he served in the Navy as a Seabee on the island of Saipan in the South Pacific.

After the war, Mr. Owen operated Owen's Taxi with his brother Fred and his sister, Florence. He also operated the Stetson Owen Flying Service with Joe Stetson.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

In 1949, a Navy buddy started a construction business in Wyoming and invited Mr. Owen to work for him. He and his wife, Margaret Minott Owen, went to Wyoming and North and South Dakota and he worked on the Reclamation Project. He began work on the interstate highway system.

His children were all born during the four years they was there.

In November 1953, he returned to his family's home on Church Road, where he remained until 1971 when he moved to Woodside Road. Mr. Owen then worked as a heavy equipment operator and was a member of the Union Local, retiring in 1972.

His daughter said Mr. Owen's social life revolved around his family.

"His best friends were his family," she said. "Growing up in our family there was never a dull moment, and he was always at the center of it."

In 1998, Mr. Owen received his 50-year membership pin from the United Masonic Lodge. He also was a lifetime member of the First Freewill Baptist Church.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, gardening and spending time with his family.

His wife, Margaret Minott Owen, died on April 8, 1991. A son, John H. "Red" Owen, died Jan. 20, 1992. Infant twin grandsons, John H. and Howard J., and grandson Ryan G. all died previously.

Surviving are four daughters, Sheron-Ann of New Hampshire, Jo-Ann Owen of Clifton and Roberta Owen and Mary Ellen Owen, both of Brunswick; a son, Thomas of South Harpswell; and 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Stetson's Funeral Home, 12 Federal St. A funeral will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the First Freewill Baptist Church, Church Road, with the Rev. H. Kenneth Dutile Jr. officiating. Burial will follow in Growstown Cemetery.

Funeral services were held for William S. Owen, 71, from his late residence at Milo this past week with the Rev. Newell J. Smith, pastor of the United Baptist Church, in charge.

Pall bearers were nephews of Mr. Owen, Aubrey Gould, Fred Gould, Fred Packard, Harold Owen and Earl Young, all of Milo, and Frank Ford of Houlton. There were many beautiful floral tributes.

Interment was at Evergreen Cemetery, Milo, and there was a Masonic service at the grave.

Mr. Owen, a prominent political figure of the State for many years, was former State finance commissioner and purchasing agent, and prior to that office, served as State treasurer for five years.

He was a native of Milo and conducted a drug business there for half a century. He served the town of Milo as postmaster and treasurer and for 10 years was treasurer and manager of the former Milo Electric Light and Power Company which he and the late Dr. H. A. Snow organized, conducted the town's first telephone exchange, was an organizer, treasurer and manager of the Milo Water Company and was a vice president and executive board member of the Kineo Trust Company at Dover-Foxcroft and Milo 15 years.

He also served as Piscataquis county treasurer, was elected to the State Senate in 1905 and to the House of Representatives from 1919 to 1923. He served on the Executive Council under Gov. Percival P. Baxter, and then became State treasurer. Mr. Owen served many terms on the Republican State Committee. He served as State finance commissioner and purchasing agent from 1932 to 1940, resigning last Spring.

Mr. Owen is survived by a son, William H. Owen of Augusta, a daughter, Mrs. Marion Pollard of Masardis; a brother, Charles Owen of Milo, and two sisters, Mrs. Abbie Gould of Milo and Mrs. Lona Hunkins of Scarboro.

Mr. Owen made a host of friends during his long and prominent career. Mrs. Owen died 11 days prior to her husband. He was a brother to Fred K. Owen, who died in Feb. 1940, after a long career as political and editorial writer for the Express and Sunday Telegram.

Christy H. Pachios downtown real estate development

FALMOUTH - Christy H. Pachios, a well-known developer of downtown Portland commercial real estate, died Wednesday on his 92nd birthday.

He was born in Bridgeport, Conn., a son of Harry and Constance Philopopoulos Pachios. Shortly after he was born, his family moved back to their native Greek mountain villages, Peilana and Georgitsi, near Sparta, where Mr. Pachios spent his early school years. In 1914, he returned with his family to Connecticut.

Christy Pachios

He was an outstanding athlete in football, basketball and baseball at Stamford (Conn.) High School, playing on one of the great football teams in Connecticut school-boy sports history. His 1926 team was unbeaten, winning 10 games against high school teams from New Jersey, New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts, scoring 300 points and holding the opposition to a total of 6 points.

He also was a well-known high school baseball player, and later played semi-pro baseball for the Stamford All-Stars in the Connecticut-New York region.

During World War II he served in the Coast Guard Reserve. In the early part of the war he served as co-chairman, with Dr. Kenneth C.M. Sills, president of Bowdoin College, of the Greek War Relief drive in Maine.

Mr. Pachios attended Boston University and Northeastern University Law School. In 1932 he joined the real estate investment department of the Prudential Insurance Co. and later was assigned to offices in Newark, N.J., Springfield and Boston, Mass., and New Haven, Conn.

He moved to Portland in 1939 to initiate Prudential's real estate lending program in Northern New England.

According to Mr. Pachios's son, for the next 20 years his father refused a series of job promotions that would have required him to leave Maine. "As far as he was concerned, Maine was heaven on earth, and he wasn't leaving," he said.

Mr. Pachios was the president and founder of Commercial and Industrial Properties, Inc., purchasing, selling and managing properties in Maine and New Hampshire. He owned several properties on Congress Street. His daughter, Penny Carson, with whom he worked in the real estate business, said her father was downtown Portland's greatest booster. "He was Mr. Congress Street. He believed in the importance and performance of cities, and he had a vision for downtown Portland," said Mrs. Carson.

In the 1960s, Mr. Pachios called for the building of downtown parking garages in order to compete with the mall. As early as 1975, he commissioned a design for an enclosed downtown farmers market, and between 1990 and 1992 he traveled to several midwestern cities to acquire information on overhead pedestrian walkways which he proposed for connecting downtown Portland buildings.

For nearly 50 years he was an active golfer at the Portland Country Club where he had three holes in one. He was also a member of the Cumberland Club, Kora Shrine and the Scottish Rite. In 1950, he helped build Cape Elizabeth's first Little League baseball field. He was a member of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church, and in the 1950s served as parish council president.

He was an avid sports enthusiast all his life, and would watch two baseball games on TV every night during baseball season, according to his son.

His wife of 56 years, Lucy C. Pachios, died in 1991.

Surviving are his daughter, Penny Carson, and son, Harold Pachios, both of Cape Elizabeth; a sister, Bess Bender of Stamford, Conn.; and four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. today at Hobbs Funeral Home, South Portland. A service will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at Holy Trinity Church.
