Louis William Parady Sr. ✓

lithographer, enjoyed photography

He was born in Rumford, son of Dr. Louis William and Florence Austin Parady, and was a 1933 graduate of Robert W. Traip Academy.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

During World War II, Mr. Parady served with the Army in the Philippines.

Prior to his retirement, he was a photo lithographer for the Navy Publications and Printing Service at Portsmouth Naval Shipyard, retiring in 1971.

Mr. Parady's interest in photography grew out of his background in printing, said his son, Louis William Parady Jr.

of Kittery.

"He always had his camera with him, wherever he was," the younger Parady said.

Mr. Parady's house was filled with his photographs. Outdoor scenes, such as the deer that often came into his yard, were a favorite, his son said.

Mr. Parady also took an active interest in community events. He served on the Kittery Board of Appeals and in recent years a favorite event was the annual seaside festival. For several years, he handed out the award to runners in the festival's road race.

As long as he was healthy, Mr. Parady followed the Traip Academy football teams, traveling around the state to watch them play road games, his son said.

He was a communicant of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Mr. Parady was a member and past master in 1950 of the Naval Masonic Lodge, a life member of the Maine Royal Arch Chapter and a member of the Piscataqua Chapter, OES.

His wife, Shirley L. Martin Parady, died in 1987.

Survivors include a son, Louis William Parady Jr. of Kittery; three grandsons, Louis William Parady IV of Eliot, Bradford Forrest Parady of Kittery and Chester Martin Parady of Portsmouth; and a granddaughter, Kelly Parady Carlisle of San Francisco.

A funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in St. John's Episcopal Church, 101 Chapel St., Portsmouth.

Herman C. Paragard

Special Despatch to Sunday Telegram

Norway, March 23—Following a long illness, Herman C. Paragard, a native of Norway, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Humphrey, in Winchendon, Mass., where he had made his home for the past four years, since the death of his wife.

He was the son of Cheri and Ellen F. Grand Paragard, born March 24, 1870. He attended the Norway schools and for many years worked as heelfitter with his father at the B. F. Spinney Company shoe factory. He married Miss Jennie Clough of Norway, and after the closing of the Spinney factory, they went to Lynn, Mass., where he was foreman in the heel department in one of the factories and she was forelady in the stitching room. While living in Norway he became affiliated with the Masonic bodies and received several of the higher degrees in Massachusetts.

Two sisters survive, Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Florence Proctor of Auburn, and two nieces. Funeral services were held in Winchendon and burial will take place at Reading, Mass.
