Board of trustees of Anson Academy.

This, his last position, gave him an opportunity to render a service to the younger generation and to such service he dedicated his time and talent during the closing years of his life. Only recently did he resign as acting president, because of ill health. Immediately, however, he was made honorary president. The large and well appointed athletic grounds, his last gift to Anson Academy, is called Parsons Field.

Mr. Parsons found time to affiliate himself with several organizations. He served Northern Star Lodge, F. & A. M., for many years as treasurer and also was a past master.

He was the son of Almira Wilbur and Benjamin Parsons and was born at Medford, Mass., Nov. 7, 1860. His early youth was spent in Somerville, Mass., and Lexington, Me., to which place the family moved following the close of the Civil War.

He was married to Mae Richardson Fletcher of North Anson on Dec. 19, 1886, who survives him. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. C. R. Johnston of Waterville; and a son, Wallace E. Parsons, also of Waterville; and two grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the Federated Church, North Anson, last Sunday afternoon. Interment was in the Sunset Cemetery, North Anson.
