HARRY L. PLUMMER

CAPE ELIZABETH — Harry L. Plummer, 74, of 184 Ocean House Road, retired railroad man, died Sunday in a Portland nursing home after a long illness.

He was born in Portland Jan. 30, 1884, son of the late

Albion A. and Margaret Taylor Plummer, and attended Portland schools.

In 1902 he began work with the Maine Central Railroad as a clerk. From 1929 to 1931 he was assistant to the auditor of freight accounts. In 1931 he became head inward clerk for the Portland Terminal Company. He retired in 1956.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks and for many years was general chairman of its assistant board of adjustment. He was a member of Portland Lodge of Masons and of Greeleaf Chapter, Royal Arch Masons.

His wife, the former Grace Katon, died in 1950.

Following his retirement Mr. Plummer became the self-styled "King of the Kibitzers" of the neighborhood. His hobby became six-hour days as "sidewalk superintendent" of house construction in the Oakwood avenue section.

The builders equipped him with an "air-conditioned" tarpaulin "palace"; a magaphone; a folding chair inscribed "Director, H. L. P." on its back; and an aluminum-handled fly swatter "to swap those pesky horse flies." The equipment was a token of the construction crew's high esteem for their genial, friendly "superintendent."

He had become a sidewalk superintendent more or less on doctor's orders. His physician had told him upon retirement to relax, get plenty of air and take it easy.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Norton Sr. of Cape Elizabeth; a brother, Harold T. Plummer of Cape Elizabeth; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at 749 Congress St., Portland. The Rev. Howard O. Hough will officiate. Burial will be in Forest City Cemetery, South Portland.

BUXTON — Reginald Gerry Plummer Sr., 80, of Warren Road died Dec. 11, 2000, at his home.

He was born in Raymond, a son of Percy William and Stella Gerry Plummer, and attended Buxton schools, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track.

Reginald Plummer

He was a veteran of World War II and served in France and Germany. Before joining the military, he worked at the South Portland shipyards.

Mr. Plummer was an energetic and tireless worker, his family said. One of his earliest jobs was delivering the evening newspaper in the West Buxton village area. He started working at Plummer's Store, the business founded by his father, while he was in high school and with the exception of his wartime efforts, he worked there until illness forced his retirement in October. Mr. Plummer became a partner in the business with his father and two brothers. He was later joined by his sons and in recent years by his grandsons, Troy, Garrett and Chris.

Mr. Plummer served on several civic committees during his lifetime, including the Jack Memorial Building Committee. He was a 54-year member of the Masons in West Buxton, where he served for many years as a trustee of the building association. He also was a 50-year member of the Odd Fellows in Hollis.

More than 80 relatives and friends attended his 80th birthday party in September.

Surviving are his wife of 61 years, Grace Smith Plummer of Buxton; two sons, Reginald Jr. and Barry, both of Buxton; a sister, Bessie Plummer Fleetwood of Goose Rocks Beach in Kennebunkport; six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday at Dennett, Craig and Pate Funeral Home, 13 Portland Road, with a Masonic service at 7 p.m. A funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the funeral home. Burial will follow in Hillcrest Cemetery in Hollis.
